Assessment components	As a performance course, attendance and participation at all rehearsals and performances are required to receive credit. If you miss/leave early/come late to more than three rehearsals or one performance per semester, this could result in a non-credit allocation. If you are ill or must miss a rehearsal or performance, you must let Kathryn Parrotta know in writing via email before the date. If more than 3 rehearsals or one performance is missed or partially attended per semester, the student may be asked to complete a written assignment. This is at the discretion of the instructor. As a non-credit/Club member singer, the same criteria must be met in order to continue as a member of the chorus.
Assessment expectations	Criteria that must be met to pass: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Attendance at rehearsals and performances. -Electronics are only to be used for learning. Using devices to record rehearsals for music learning is acceptable as long as it does not become a distraction. -Bring your music and pencil to every rehearsal. -You are expected to be intelligent and respectful and bring a positive attitude to the singing team. -Performance dress: to be discussed further in class. All black attire. Black dress shoes are the only shoe acceptable on the performance stage. -Respect for the music. Music that is performed is chosen because of its educational value, thematic content, history, suitability to the choir, and to honor cultures and traditions. Any concerns should be addressed with the director privately.
Grading scale	This course is PASS/FAIL based on attendance
