Out of class activities	Students will be required to perform in concerts on December 5, 2017 and March 23, 2018, as well as attend dress rehearsals to take place during the mornings and afternoons of the above dates.
Learning resources: required readings, textbooks and materials	There is no required text for this course. Sheet music will be provided.
Prerequisites	There are no prerequisites for this course
Course description	Performing experience in the World Music Ensemble.
Course overview	The World Music Ensemble is a chamber ensemble designed to give students the opportunity to explore and perform music from various non-Western cultures. The World Music Ensemble is made up of a combination of performers of Western and non-Western instruments, and both music majors and non-music majors. The course has no prerequisite except that students be competent on a Western or non-Western instrument. The concept of the ensemble will be to explore the relationships between tradition and innovation by developing new works and reworking traditional music through a student-driven creative process. Students will have the opportunity, if desired, to compose for the group. The individual musical heritages of each student will be drawn upon, resulting in new musical expressions that will demonstrate the potential of intercultural understanding and communication.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. understand the structure of the music from the genres covered, 2. perform within the traditional expectations of the cultures covered, 3. perform within an ensemble context, 4. rehearse efficiently within a limited time frame, and 5. mount a concert of varying genres and instrumentation, and manage logistical challenges idiomatic to world music ensembles.
Course schedule	The ensemble will run through both Fall and Winter sessions with each semester culminating in a performance. The Fall term performance will take place on Tuesday, November 5, 2017; the Winter term performance will take place Friday, March 23, 2018. Students must participate in both of these performances, as assigned, to achieve a passing grade in the course. Other performance opportunities may present themselves throughout the course. All other classes throughout the term will be spent rehearsing the music. Students may be asked to meet for additional rehearsals, especially for smaller pieces not involving the entire group. In addition, students will be grouped into committees responsible for various tasks in concert production, promotion and ensemble development.

Assessment components	Preparation of weekly-assigned repertoire practice tasks: Value: 30% Details: Students will be evaluated on their preparation of assigned repertoire practice tasks for each rehearsal, on the basis of their performance of the repertoire in each rehearsal. Students who are absent, unexcused, for a rehearsal will be assessed a score of zero for that rehearsal. Preparation of weekly-assigned skills-development practice tasks: Value: 30% Details: Students will be evaluated on their preparation of assigned skills development practice tasks for each rehearsal, on the basis of their performance of these tasks in each rehearsal. Students who are absent, unexcused, for a rehearsal will be assessed a score of zero for that rehearsal. Performances (and dress rehearsals): Value: 20% Dates: December 5, 2017 and March 23, 2018 Details: Students will mount and perform in a public concert, and will be evaluated on their preparation, readiness, professionalism and dedication to and for the success of the event. Students are expected to be available for stage set-up in the morning, the dress rehearsal in the afternoon, and the concert in the evening, to the extent that they are not in other classes, and must be continuously present after 4pm until the concert's conclusion at 11pm. Contribution to a safe, supportive, positive atmosphere: Value: 10% Details: As this class will be very collaborative in nature, students will be expected to contribute to a safe, supportive, positive atmosphere. Students will also be expected to help in the set-up and tear-down of the instruments used each class. Committee participation: Value: 10% Details: Students will be asked to serve on a committee tasked with managing a particular logistical or administrative need within the ensemble.
Assessment expectations	Expectations for Attendance and Participation: Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. Since class participation is a necessary component of the course, attendance will be taken and will factor, along with punctuality, into final grades. Absences are only accepted in cases of illness, domestic affliction, religious conviction, in circumstances beyond the student's control, or other conflicts approved by the instructor. In cases of absences due to circumstances known to the student in advance, students must seek approval at least one week prior to the absence. To clarify punctuality, players are expected to be in position, set up, warmed up, and ready to rehearse by the beginning time of rehearsal. A grade reduction will apply where students are late. Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass To pass this course, students must achieve a minimum final weighted average of 50%. In addition, students must participate in both end-of-term concerts.

Grading scale	For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.1.1 Undergraduate Grading System of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2017-2018:
	Grade	Grade Point Value	Description
	A+	4.00	Outstanding performance
	A	4.00	Excellent performance
	A-	3.70	Approaching excellent performance
	B+	3.30	Exceeding good performance
	B	3.00	Good performance
	B-	2.70	Approaching good performance
	C+	2.30	Exceeding satisfactory performance
	C	2.00	Satisfactory performance
	C-	1.70	Approaching satisfactory performance.
	*D+	1.30	Marginal pass. Insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject
	*D	1.00	Minimal Pass. Insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
	F	0.00	Failure. Did not meet course requirements. Several Faculties utilize an F grade that does not carry weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as “Not Included in GPA” where applicable.
	I	0.00	Incomplete. Sufficient work has not been submitted for evaluation, unable to adequately assess. May also be used when a final exam is not submitted.
	CR		Completed Requirements. Carries no weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as “Not Included in GPA” where applicable
	RM		Remedial Work Required. Utilized by the Cumming School of Medicine (MD program). Carries no weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as “Not Included in GPA” where applicable.
Notes:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A grade of "C-" or below may not be sufficient for promotion or graduation, see specific faculty regulations.• The number of "D" and "D+" grades acceptable for credit is subject to specific undergraduate faculty promotional policy.

Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/ . Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf

Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Midterm and final examination scheduling	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (Dec. 11-21 for Fall 2017 term; Apr. 16-26 for Winter 2018 term; June 28-30 for Spring 2018 term; Aug. 17-20 for Summer 2018 term) ; students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
Deferrals of exams/term work	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.

	2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicaard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
