FACULTY OF ARTS
SCHOOL OF CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS
MUSI 306.6 Progressive Rock
Summer 2023

Instructor Office Email Office Hours	Ralph Maier Craigie Hall F020 ralph.maier@ucalgary.ca By appointment
Day(s),time(s) and location of Class	M/W 13:00-15:45 Craigie Hall F202 All essential course activities will be conducted in person on campus
Learning resources: required readings and listening materials	Links to all required readings can be accessed via D2L. It is the responsibility of the student to procure all required listening materials for this course (a Spotify account is recommended).
Learning Technologies and Requirements	There is a D2L site for this course which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials (see d2l.ucalgary.ca). Due to the nature of the course, a good set of stereo headphones or earbuds is strongly recommended.
Course description and overview	This course is a multimedia survey course exploring the genre of popular music known as Progressive Rock. The course will include an examination of Progressive Rock's early history from its psychedelic beginnings, through its heyday in the 1970s, and its legacy in the 1980s and beyond. Discussions will center on a survey of some of Progressive Rock's most well-known icons and will include detailed analyses and in-depth discussions of their works
Course activities and learning outcomes	In addition to providing students with an in-depth look at one of rock's most fascinating genres, this course will assist students in developing a greater appreciation and understanding of progressive rock and popular music in general. Structural analyses of major works will offer students a clear means of tracing and evaluating the development of the genre. Lectures, classroom discussion, readings, and assignments will encourage the development of an appropriate musical vocabulary and provide a forum for intelligent discussion. By focusing on key issues surrounding the music – the importance of musical eclecticism, the appropriation of western classical music, the foregrounding of virtuosity, and the use of fantasy in lyrical content and album artwork - students will be encouraged to approach popular music from a critical perspective.
Course schedule	Please consult attached lecture plan below
Assessment components	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three 70-minute in-class listening exams (July 5, July 19, August 2: 15% each): identification and description of required listening materials and readings (multiple choice/true or false/mini-essays) • 70-minute in-class midterm exam based on lectures and required readings: multiple choice/true or false/ large essay (July 12: 25%) • Term paper: topics posted no later than July 12 (due end of day August 12: 30%) • Please note: make-up exams will not be scheduled without the most compelling of reasons.
