Course Description

An examination of the central concepts of architecture, planning, and landscape architecture delivered in an online format.

Design is everywhere. It is part of your everyday communication, your household, and your workplace. Design is also a complex concept. It is both a process and the result of that process -- the shape, style, and meaning of environments that have been designed. Many factors influence the design process: the location, the environmental issues, the relationship with its surroundings, the ideas of the designer, technological determinants, the cultural context that gave rise to the need for the project in the first place, and finally, the social, economic, political and the legislative context that will frame the design.

New tools, such as augmented reality, are continually being developed that will change the nature of our practice. This course helps you to understand the natural, built, and human environments and focuses on fashioning physical and social interventions informed by human behavior and environmental processes. It includes fields such as architecture, planning, urban design, environmental science, product design, technology, and landscape architecture.

GFC Hours (3-0)

Online Delivery (If applicable)

This course is completely online and asynchronous, with no face-to-face meetings or Zoom sessions. Each week, usually on Wednesday (with some exceptions), a new unit of material is released consisting of a video lecture, related readings, and an assignment. The assignment is to be completed and placed in the appropriate D2L dropbox by the due date, which is usually 2359 on the following Wednesday.

Evaluations are also returned via the D2L dropbox.

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will know and be able to:
1. Have an evidence-based, holistic understanding of the issues relevant to architecture, urban planning, landscape architecture, and related disciplines.
2. Acquire basic skills in each of these disciplines.
3. Understand how an interdisciplinary approach can be used to solve complex problems.
4. Apply "design thinking" to small but important examples of personal interest.
5. Be familiar with the various career paths and educational options relevant to the fields covered in the course.

Special Budgetary Requirements

None

Learning Resources

Required readings, textbooks, and learning materials: All required and optional readings will be provided on D2L, though students are encouraged to consult additional resources and to cite them. The use of references, where appropriate, is encouraged in this course, and will be considered in grading. The preferred reference standard for SAPL is APA Version 7

Access to the Internet, D2L, and a device capable of playing online videos are required. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that assignments are submitted successfully to the appropriate dropbox. If you encounter any difficulty, please contact your TA promptly. Your TA is also your first point of contact if you require minor time extensions for good and valid reasons. These will be assessed on a case-by-case basis. However, it is definitely to your advantage to submit all assignments and discussion postings on time.

Assessment and Evaluation Information

- Attendance and Participation Expectations: While there is no synchronous component, students are expected to study each topic in the week it is assigned. This involves watching the video, reading the materials provided, making discussion posts, and completing the associated assignment by the due date. It is highly recommended that you keep up with the weekly rhythm of the course and submit assignments by the due date specified and make discussion posts during the week you are studying the material.
- Guidelines for Submitting Assignments: Please submit to the appropriate dropbox. Evaluations will be returned there.
- Final Examinations: There is no final examination.
- Expectations for Writing:
  (https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html):
- Late Assignments: Assignment submissions made after the deadlines shown above will be accepted, up until the Final Deadline. They may be penalized up to one full grade (e.g., A to B) for lateness. There is a single "day of grace" available to you, which can be used to extend ONE assignment submission deadline by 24 hours. Please note "day of grace" in the dropbox submission comment field if you choose to use this.
- Discussion board postings should be made as you do each topic but are accepted until the Final Deadline without a lateness penalty. No work will be accepted for grading after the Final Deadline has passed.
- Criteria that must be met to pass: It is not necessary to pass any specific component to pass the course.

Grading Scale

PLEASE NOTE: This is the current official grading scale and interpretation of grades of the School of Architecture, Planning, and Landscape. It may differ from the grading scale of the faculty in which you are registered. In particular, it is significantly different from the Undergraduate Grading System chart in the University of Calgary Calendar. http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html

(As noted in the Calendar) "University policy requires that students' grades in a course are reported according to the grading scheme of the faculty or school giving the course (regardless of the faculty or school in which a student is registered) and are so recorded on students' transcripts of record."

Grade	Grade Point Value	4-Point Range	Percent	Description
A+	4.00	4.00	95-100	Outstanding - evaluated by instructor

A-	3.70	3.50-3.84	85-89.99	Very good performance
B+	3.30	3.15-3.49	80-84.99	Good performance
B	3.00	2.85-3.14	75-79.99	Satisfactory performance
B-	2.70	2.50-2.84	70-74.99	Minimum pass for students in the Faculty of Graduate Studies
C+	2.30	2.15-2.49	65-69.99	All final grades below B- are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted toward Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements.

A student who receives a "C+" or lower in any one course will be required to withdraw regardless of their grade point average (GPA) unless the program recommends otherwise. If the program permits the student to retake a failed course, the second grade will replace the initial grade in the calculation of the GPA, and both grades will appear on the transcript. (THIS POLICY ONLY APPLIES T O STUDENTS WHO ARE REGISTERED IN THE FACULTY OF GRADUATE STUDIES)

The School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape will not permit the Flexible Grade Option (CG Grade) for any course offered by the School. (https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/salp-3-3.html)
