COURSE CONTENT:

Beginning with a history of Aboriginal-Euro-Canadian relations and legislation, the course then takes an overview of the current situation of Canada's Aboriginal peoples and the issues concerning them. Topics explored include health, justice, the reserve system, education, land claims, modern treaties, Aboriginal rights, the pursuit of self government, and the development of Aboriginal policy. Throughout the course, we will also address issues of power, agency, voice, identity and authority.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To provide a basic understanding of the history, experiences, perspectives, and contemporary issues facing the Aboriginal peoples of Canada
2. To enhance the ability to think anthropologically and reflexively about the relationship between mainstream Canadian culture and First Nations peoples.
3. To develop critical thinking and skills through discussing issues in class.

REQUIRED TEXTS

1. Frideres, James and Rene Gadacz, 2012. Aboriginal Peoples in Canada (9th edn). Toronto: Pearson. ISBN: 978-0-13-216197-8

Additional Readings

Links to additional readings will be made available on D2L.

COURSE FORMAT:

This course will follow an interactive lecture-discussion style format accompanied by the occasional film or video. Class discussions and lectures will not repeat or cover all the material in the text but will elaborate on selected topics to provide a deeper understanding of the material. Assigned textbook readings may be augmented with suggested additional readings and handouts.

COURSE POLICIES

Desire to Learn (D2L): All course materials and information, as well as unofficial grades, will be posted on D2L.

Email Policy

In any email correspondence please begin with the course code (anth213) in the subject line along with the subject of your message. Most of the time, you can expect a reply to an email within 24 hours. Please do NOT expect an immediate reply. You should also know that I will only rarely reply to emails on the weekends. Also I will not reply to emails that are not signed at least with your first name.

Cell phone and Laptop/Tablet Policy

Cell phones must be turned off during the class except when in use for Top Hat Monocle (see below).aptops and tablets should be used only for taking notes. Since the screens can be distracting to students sitting behind, if you wish to use your laptop or tablet please sit toward the back of the class.

TopHat

- Students are required to set up a Top Hat (TH) account. TH will be used to assess participation and comprehension which are grade components (see below) for the course. The university has a site licence for the application and accounts can be set up at <https://app.tophat.com/register/student/>
- The TH URL for the course is: <https://app-ca.tophat.com/e/232482>
- The password for the course is Aboriginal (case sensitive)

ASSESSMENT

1. Midterm exam 1:

- 25 % of final grade
- Date: October 4

2. Midterm exam 2:

- 25 % of final grade
- Date: Nov 1

3. Final Exam:

- 40% of final grade
- Dec 12 - 22 (Registrar's Scheduled) exact date,time, and place TBA

Exams will be 50% multiple choice and 50% short answer. Exams Are Not Cumulative.

4. Participation

- 10% of final grade
- During most classes (but not all) questions will be posted some time during the class using TH and based on that day's reading or the previous class.
- Questions are answered using your cell phone, laptop, or tablet. Note: there will only be a 2-3 minute window in which to answer the questions.

- $\frac{1}{2}$ a point is allotted for answering the question, and $\frac{1}{2}$ a point for correctly
- At the end of the course the points achieved out of the total possible will be used to calculate a mark out of 10.
- Students can track their progress in TH.
- TH will also be used for other participation and comprehension purposes during the class with no marks attached.

GRADING SYSTEM:

Each item of course work will be weighted as above and a final mark out of 100 calculated. This will then be converted to a letter grade as follows:

A+	94.9-100	A	89.9-94.8%	A-	84.9-89.8 %

D+	54.9 %- 58.8%	D	49.9-54.8 %	F	49.8 and below

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

Plagiarism: "to steal and pass off the ideas or words of another as one's own" (Webster's). Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will automatically result in a failing grade for the submission. Any student caught plagiarizing will also be subject to additional University sanctions. Students are expected to be familiar with the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology's policy on intellectual honesty

DEFERRED EXAMS:

Deferral of a mid-term exam must be cleared with the instructor. Deferral will be granted only in cases of personal injury, illness, or immediate family emergency. An official note or other documentation explaining the reason for the absence is required. Deferral of the final exam requires Registrar approval.

Academic Accommodations:

The academic accommodations policy can be found at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy>.

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodations and have not registered with Student Accessibility Services, please contact them at 403-220-6019. Students that have not registered with the SAS are not eligible for formal academic accommodations. More information about the academic accommodations can be found at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access>.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the event that the classroom should need to be evacuated due to an emergency please note that the primary assembly point shall be the Professional Faculties Food

Court and the secondary assembly point shall be the Social Science Food Court.

USRI:

At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses (www.ucalgary.ca/usri). Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys.

The Department of Anthropology and Archaeology's FOIP (Freedom of Information and Privacy) policy requires all reports/examinations to be returned to students during class time or the instructor's office hours. Any term work not picked up will be placed in the Anthropology Office (SS 854) for distribution. Any student not wishing to have their work placed in the office must make alternate arrangements with the course instructor early in the term.
