REQUIRED TEXT - Primate Behavioral Ecology by Karen Strier, 4th edition, 2010.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

TERM TEST ONE 20% – Tuesday February 2. This in class test will be short answer format and cover all preceding classroom material as well as chapters 1 – 3.

TERM TEST TWO 30% – Tuesday March 8. This in class test will be short answer format and cover classroom material since Term Test One, as well as chapters 4 – 8.

CUMULATIVE FINAL EXAM – 50% - Registrar Scheduled. This test will be short answer format and will cover all classroom material, movies, and all 12 chapters of the book.

Partial lecture notes will be posted on D2L, and students are encouraged to print these and bring them to class to assist with handwritten note taking. Important: the posted notes are NOT sufficient without the lectures themselves. Tests will be based on all materials covered in class including the presented lectures and guest lectures, discussion, Q & A, and movies.

Although related and sometimes overlapping, the material in the textbook is not tightly integrated with the lectures. These should be considered as two separate sets of information, both to be mastered for the exams.

Classroom Regulations and Expectations

- Use of laptops, smart phones, iPads, cell phones etc. not permitted in this class. In case of disabilities requiring such equipment, documentation of the disability through the DRC and written permission of the instructor is required; special seating arrangements will be made.
- Try to arrive on time to prevent disruption to the class. If you are late please take a seat at the back of the room to minimize disruption. Likewise please stay seated until class in concluded. We will not run overtime.

- Please do not converse with classmates during lectures. This is unfair to students sitting nearby who may miss lecture material that will subsequently appear on exams. If you are discussing lecture material please raise your hand to share the comment or question as that will benefit the whole class. Relevant interruptions are welcome. You may also email questions to me which will be answered at the next class (the questioner will not be identified). Likewise, all email enquiries about tests will be answered in class.
- Please turn cell & smart phones off during class.

Communication Guidelines – we offer you this advice to help you have more successful communication in this course and in your professional life in general:

- You are welcome to communicate with us by email or in person before and after class, during office hours, or by appointment.
- Use a professional email address (such as your ucalgary address or a yourname@gmail.com) for professional correspondence (such as messages to your professor or TA). Do not, for example, send emails from accounts that you set up in grade nine when you called yourself sailormoon99@hotmail.com or sexykitten69@yahoo.com which hopefully you did not think was appropriate in grade nine. Or ever, really.
- Use a clear subject line such as “Anth 201 Question” or “Anth 201 Student”.
- Use an appropriate (i.e., not too casual – err on the side of formality) greeting to start your email such as “Dear Dr. Pavelka) and sign off with your full name and ucid number. Do not skip a greeting altogether, or open with, for example, Hey there, What up? or Yo! If you don’t know the name of the professor or TA start with “Dear Professor or Dear TA, although taking a peak at the course outline might be slightly better than advertising that you don’t know the name of the person you are about to ask for something.
- Check the course outline and materials posted on D2L before asking for information that has already been provided. Again, just to avoid advertising that you don’t come to class or consult the materials that have been provided to you.
- Use complete sentences and proof-read and spell check your messages.
- We will respond as soon as possible but to be safe please allow 48 hours for a response, excluding weekends and holidays.

Classroom Examination Instructions – Exam room security is taken very seriously. To ensure exam security please see and follow the Classroom Examination Instructions for this class on D2L.

Missed tests automatically receive a score of zero. In the event of an illness, please try to notify us (Prof, TA, or Anarky main office – 220-6516) before the exam. Doctor’s notes are typically not required, but be aware that performance on make-up exams is typically lower than that of those written in class.

Test Reassessment Instructions – Term tests will be returned the following week. An answer key will be posted with the class material on D2L. If, after consulting the key, your notes, and the text, you have questions about the scoring of your exam please see and follow the Test Reassessment Instructions on D2L.

No special arrangements will be made following a poor test performance. For example, we cannot change the weighting of the tests, allow retakes, or accept alternate assignments in lieu of the test. Prepare in advance to ensure a good test performance – this is your opportunity to perform well, not later. After the test no changes will be made.

Writing Across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and may use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Student Accessibility Services Accommodations

Student Accommodations. Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should contact Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-foraccommodations-for-students-with-disabilities_0.pdf.

It is the responsibility of the student to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with Student Accessibility Services, please contact their office at (403)220-8237.

Students who have not registered with Student Accessibility Services are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. Students are also required to discuss their needs with the instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of the course.

Academic Misconduct

Academic dishonesty is an unacceptable activity at the University of Calgary and students are strongly advised to read the Student Misconduct section of the University Calendar. Quite often, students are unaware of what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism. The most common are:

- 1) Presenting another student's work as your own
- 2) Presenting an author's work or ideas as you own without proper referencing
- 3) Using work completed for another course

This activity will not be tolerated and students conducting themselves in this manner will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the University Calendar.

For detailed information on what constitutes academic misconduct, please refer to the following link:
