

ARCHAEOLOGY 506
ADVANCED ARCHAEOLOGICAL FIELD TECHNIQUES
SPRING 2012

Instructor: Dale Walde

Office: ES 860

Phone: 220-4850 Email: walde@ucalgary.ca

Lecture/Practical: MTWR (9 hours per day, plus travel time, 4 days/week, 09 May–25 June, 2012)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students will work to build on their previous knowledge of the theory and practice of archaeological field research and field work management. Course emphasis is on student acquisition of the advanced skills and knowledge required to work as senior members of academic and resource management archaeological crews, particularly as crew chiefs.

TEXTS

There are no required textbooks.

TRAVEL AND LOGISTICS

A van will provide return transportation from the Science Theatres Loop at the University of Calgary to the Cluny Fortified Village site (EePf-1). The site is east of Calgary near the village of Cluny, Alberta, in Blackfoot Crossing Historic Park at the Siksika (Blackfoot) Nation. Travel time each way each day is approximately 1.5 hours. Students must bring their own drinks, food including a lunch, and snacks as there are no stores or other facilities at the site.

While working at the Cluny site, class hours will be from 8:30 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. Tuesday through Friday. These times do not include travel time and students must consider travel time in their planning. Students requiring transportation must be at the meeting place by 7:00 AM.

Term Projects

Each student will complete two term projects: a field management project and a site-based research project. The field management project will be assigned on the first day of class. Students will submit a site-based research project proposal by the end of the second week of classes for instructor approval. Students who do not have an approved project by the beginning of the third week of class will be assigned a field report project based on the work of their assigned crews.

ADDITIONAL CONTENT OF THE COURSE OUTLINE

Writing across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and may use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Academic Accommodation Policy

The purpose of academic accommodation is to provide students with documented disabilities equal opportunity to master the essentials of a post-secondary education. Students with disabilities at the University of Calgary have met all admission requirements but may have done so with the use of accommodations. Similarly, they are expected to meet all academic and non-academic requirements. Adaptive technology and other academic accommodations do not relieve students of their responsibility to develop the essential skills and abilities expected of all students.

Please refer to the following web link for detailed information: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/drc/node/71>

Disability Resource Centre Accommodations

It is the responsibility of the student to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at (403)220-8237.

Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. Students are also required to discuss their needs with the instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of the course.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

The University of Calgary is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals who work and study at the University or who otherwise interact with the University in accordance with the standards set out in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Academic Misconduct

Academic dishonesty is an unacceptable activity at the University of Calgary and students are strongly advised to read the Student Misconduct section of the University Calendar. Quite often, students are unaware of what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism. The most common are:

- 1) Presenting another student's work as your own
- 2) Presenting an author's work or ideas as you own without proper referencing
- 3) Using work completed for another course

This activity will not be tolerated and students conducting themselves in this manner will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the University Calendar.

For detailed information on what constitutes academic misconduct, please refer to the following link:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2-1.html>

Plagiarism

Plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work as if it were the student's own work when it is not. Any ideas or materials taken from another source written, electronic, or oral must be fully and formally acknowledged. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to:

- (a) The work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) Parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) The whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) A student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted. Plagiarism is an extremely serious academic offence.

It is recognized that clause (d) does not prevent a graduate student incorporating work previously done by him or her in a thesis or dissertation.

Emergency Evacuation Assembly Points

In the event of an emergency that requires evacuation, please refer to the following link to become familiar with the assembly points for the class: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints>
