Assignments and evaluation

Students are required to attend presentations as they are scheduled. Each student will be required to sign a class register for each presentation. Please consider how late arrivals interrupt the flow of the lecture. Questions from the audience are encouraged and expected.

This course will be graded on a CR (completed requirements) / F (fail) basis.

In order to receive a CR you should attend all ten scheduled presentations.

However, should you miss one or two presentations, you may make up by ticketed attendance at a dance, drama, music or art events. You must then write a one-page "reflection" (not a description) on the event, staple the ticket stub to the written reflection and hand it in to the instructor within one week of the event. Missing presentations without substitution, or missing more than two presentations, will constitute failure to meet course requirements and will result in an F grade (unless prior arrangements have been made, on an individual basis, by the course instructor).

Absences will only be excused on the basis of a signed physician's or counsellor's note presented to the course instructor immediately after the absence.

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not essential for the student to receive "CR" (completed requirements) for the course as a whole.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam: NO

Late Assignment Policy

"Reflections" with ticket stubs for events attended in lieu of (one or two) missed presentations will be accepted until the last day of classes, Friday, 5 December.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the University.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre (SS110) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

In relation to the present course, any quotations include in written "reflections" must be fully documented.

Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement.

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you're in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation.

Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.
