IMPORTANT:

There is no final examination in this course, marks are based on term work.

Grades will be based on the following:

1. Evidence of a gained knowledge of three-dimensional design fundamentals as shown in the quality of work submitted.
2. Degree of skill and craftsmanship that is employed.
3. Degree of originality and willingness to explore new ideas.
4. Level of commitment to the course, attendance, and deadlines. Full and respectful participation in collaborative group work is essential. Full class attendance and full demonstration during class time of two-dimensional design acumen is expected of all class participants.
5. Written assignments and written cooperative/reflective assessments.

- 1. All assignments must be completed to pass the course. (See “Late Assignment Policy” below).
- 2. A passing grading for each posted assignment is necessary to pass the course.
- 3. Daily in class demonstration of studio development and contribution to the class through idea generation and collaboration is a major consideration of assessing each assignment. Daily attendance is essential for success in this class.

All assignments are posted in D2L. It is the student’s responsibility to be completely aware of course assignments and pertinent course documents through D2L as the class is largely paperless.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor’s mailbox.

Late Assignment Policy

Late assignments are subject to a grade reduction of one increment (e.g., A to A-, C+ to C) for every day late after the posted due date up to 3 days unless prior formal arrangement has been made with the instructor. Failure to submit an assignment after 3 days of the posted due date will result in a grade of “F” for that assignment.

Additional Information/ Supplies:

Studio supplies for this course can be purchased from the Art Store in the Department of Art or at the U of C Bookstore in Mac Hall. Estimated cost. approximately $150 to $200. Cost can be reduced considerably by collecting possible art materials from home, work, etc. You will be given intermittent supply lists as the course unfolds through different projects. For the beginning of the course you will need the following: 2H, HB, 2B, 4B, 6B, 8B pencils, a ruler, a sketchbook 9” x 12” or 11” x 14”, 4 sheets of Mayfair drawing paper 20” x 26”. It is also essential that you get a locker in the Art Department as soon as the course starts for the storage of supplies and project work (see “Lockers” below).

Grading Method/Grading Scale:

Percentage	Grade	G.P.V.	Grade Definition
96-100	A+	4.0	Outstanding
90-95	A	4.0	Excellent-superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter.
85-89	A-	3.7
80-84	B+	3.3
75-79	B	3.0	Good – clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete.
70-74	B-	2.7
65-69	C+	2.3
60-64	C	2.0	Satisfactory – basic understanding of the subject matter.
55-59	C-	1.7
53-54	D+	1.3
50-52	D	1.0	Minimal pass – marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
0-49	F	0	Fail – unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements.

Studio Procedures

The creation of art can be a dirty process and a studio is only workable if everyone cooperates in keeping it clean. Out of respect and consideration for your class mates and other users of the space, it is expected that everyone will participate in keeping the studio clean and tidy.

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information

Cell phones are to be turned off before entering the classroom. Personal laptop computers or tablets will only be used for research in class for individual assignments as determined by the instructor. Also a computer with internet access will be used for lectures and demonstrations and this will be available to members of the class for research they might want to conduct in completing their assignments.

Academic Accommodation

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/>

Academic Standing

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (S.A.S.); S.A.S. will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf

Deferral of Exams/Term work

It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examination(s) for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with Enrolment Services if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student's Union's used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement.

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you're in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation.

Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

For more information go to <http://www.su.ucalgary.ca/>

Models

In this class students may be expected to draw from nude models. A student electing not to do so must notify the instructors IN WRITING of his/her concerns.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

Note - All unclaimed work will be disposed of.

Note - Studio spaces, bulletin boards and display areas need to be cleared 2 weeks after the last day of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
