All assignments are posted in D2L. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of course assignments and pertinent course documents through D2L as the class is largely paperless.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Late Assignment Policy

Late assignments are subject to a grade reduction of one increment (e.g., A to A-, C+ to C) for every day late after the posted due date up to 3 days unless prior formal arrangement has been made with the instructor. Failure to submit an assignment after 3 days of the posted due date will result in a grade of “F” for that assignment.

Additional Information/ Supplies:

Studio supplies for this course can be purchased from the Artstore in the Department of Art or at the U of C Bookstore in Mac Hall. Estimated cost - approximately $150 to $200. Costs can be reduced considerably by collecting possible art materials from home, work, etc. You will be given intermittent supply lists as the course unfolds through different projects.

For the beginning of the course you will need the following: 2H, HB, 2B, 4B, 6B, 8B pencils, a ruler, a sketchbook 9” x 12” or 11” x 14” and 4 sheets of Mayfair drawing paper 20” x 26”. Studio Procedures

The creation of art can be a dirty process and a studio is only workable if everyone cooperates in keeping it clean. Out of respect and consideration for your class mates and other users of the space, it is expected that everyone will participate in keeping the studio clean and tidy.

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information

Cell phones are to be turned off before entering the classroom. Personal laptop computers or tablets will only be used for research in class for individual assignments as determined by the instructor. Also a computer with internet access will be used for lectures and demonstrations and this will be available to members of the class for research they might want to conduct in completing their assignments.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support> or <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement at https://www.su.ucalgary.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/08/locker_rental_agreement_2010.pdf

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you're in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation.

Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

Note - All unclaimed work will be disposed of.

Note - Studio spaces, bulletin boards and display areas need to be cleared 2 weeks after the last day of classes.
