Course Description

Foundation course in three-dimensional art making. Creative exploration may include media such as plaster, clay, wood, and found objects. Technical approaches may include mold-making, casting, additive and subtractive processes. Form, mass, volume and materials will be addressed in the context of research, problem solving, visual fluency and conceptual development.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

None

Objectives of the Course

Upon successful completion of the course, students will:

Have acquired introductory skills with mold making; casting and finishing processes; assemblage techniques; working with multiples; and installation;

Have engaged in problem finding and problem solving skills in the visual arts problem space;

Be able to articulately discuss and critique the formal and conceptual aspects of a work of art.

Textbooks and Readings

Readings as assigned.

Assignments and Evaluation

|--|------------|
| 5 studio assignments (5 X 15% each) | 75% |
| - Due: 05/02/19, 26/02/19, 14/03/19, 02/04/19, and 11/04/19 | |
| Participation at Critiques (5 X 3% each) | 15% |
| - Held on 05/02/19, 26/02/19, 14/03/19, 02/04/19, and 11/04/19 | |
| Essay (5 pages, double spaced) | 10% |
| - Due Friday, April 12 | |

Participation at critiques is required in order to receive full participation marks. Participation during critiques will be graded.

Participation means the following: attendance with a completed assignment; acting as the “lead respondent” in a critique (to be discussed in class); contributing to the critique as a participant.

A passing grade on “Participation” is essential for students to pass the course as a whole.

Writing

Where written work is required it is expected that attention be paid to correct spelling, grammar and composition. Poorly written documentation will receive a low grade than those that are written with correct spelling and grammar and are well composed.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments to the appropriate dropbox on D2L. If this is not possible, you can put a hand hardcopy of your assignment into the p h y s i c a l drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Late Assignment Policy

Due dates are final unless otherwise negotiated with the instructor. Unless an extension has been granted, late assignments will not be accepted.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student's Union's used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement at https://www.su.ucalgary.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/08/locker_rental_agreement_2010.pdf

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you're in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation.

Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

For more information go to <http://www.su.ucalgary.ca/>

Models

In this class students may be expected to draw from nude models. A student electing not to do so must notify the instructors IN WRITING of his/her concerns.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

Note - All unclaimed work will be disposed of.

Note - Studio spaces, bulletin boards and display areas need to be cleared 2 weeks after the last day of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
