Course Description

Development and realization of sculpture with various techniques and materials.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

Art 233

Objectives of the Course

To develop student understanding of their own emerging concepts, recognize relevant work patterns and with assistance from the technical staff, learn to use the equipment for the necessary methodologies.

Textbooks and Readings

Readings will be assigned as required based on handouts, websites, etc.

Assignments and Evaluation

Students will be expected to engage in four major projects during the semester. These projects will be diverse in concept, methodology and materials.

Students will be required to make an oral presentation in class.

It is expected that two projects will be completed by midterm assessment which will be held by the first scheduled class after Reading Week.

The remaining projects will be assessed on the last scheduled day of class, December 3.

Each project will be weighed equally to a total of 80%.

20% of the final grade will reflect studio work habits, in-class involvement and contributions to tutorials and critiques as well as oral presentations and gallery visits (students will be responsible for their own transportation and any associated costs). At specified times during the semester critiques, discussions, slide presentations, visits to galleries and visits by artists will be arranged.

At the end of the semester a studio exhibition will be required.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Late Assignment Policy

Students should try to have their projects completed by the assigned critique dates.

Additional Information

Supplies will be listed as the projects arise.

Course Activities

Field trips will be undertaken during the term; students will be responsible for their own transportation and any associated costs.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student's Union's used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement.

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you're in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation.

Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.
