The remaining projects will be assessed on the last scheduled day of class, December 8. Each project will be weighed equally to a total of 80%.

Students will be required to make an oral presentation in class. 20% of the final grade (on an equal basis) will reflect studio work habits, in-class involvement and contributions to tutorials and critiques as well as oral presentations and gallery visits (students will be responsible for their own transportation). At specified times during the semester critiques, discussions, slide presentations, visits to galleries and visits by artists will be arranged. At the end of the semester a studio exhibition will be required.
