Topics offered may include murals, gender and the body, figure and landscape, or materiality.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

15 units (2.5 full-course equivalents) in 300 level Art and one of Art 351 or 353.

Objectives of the Course

This class will include both directed and self-generated assignments. Projects will focus on historical and contemporary color palettes, color exercises, and the development of an individual palette. Through lectures, slide presentations, studio practice and critiques students will be encouraged to develop their painting style, problem solving skills and conceptual skills.

This advanced studio course aims to deepen students foundational, technical and conceptual skills using paint and related media while addressing the issue of color. This studio class will also encourage students to develop problem-solving skills and to articulate approaches to representation which reflect their artistic concerns. Strong studio habits will be developed through assigned and self-generated projects while experimenting with color, medium, subject matter and content. In addition, critical skills will be developed through critiques.

Critiques, Classroom Community and Professionalism 15%

The Classroom Community and Professionalism portion of your grade will be based upon performance in class, including active participation in studio work, studio procedures, class discussions and critiques.

Critique days: Oct. 3, Oct. 22, Nov. 5 & Dec. 5

Critiques

Attendance and full participation during group critiques is necessary to develop self-critical awareness of the formal and conceptual weaknesses and strengths of your work as well as those of your classmates.

Critiques take a level of open mindedness, courage, maturity and patience to be most effective. They are as important as the exercises and assignments themselves in your development as an artist. The professional, critical analysis from your instructor is crucial to your growth and development. It is very important to develop communication skills and attitudes necessary for your greatest benefit and participation during critiques. Do not confuse “constructive critical feedback” from your instructor or classmates as “negative feedback”. As students of art you must demand an atmosphere of “critical” support and “respect” for your goals of “excellence”.

Developing a painting arts practice requires commitment. Participation in the critiques is vital to your success in this course. It is not possible to miss the critiques and pass this course.

It is not possible to pass this course if you have more than three unexcused absences and/or do not complete an acceptable body of work as agreed to by the student and professor.

Protocol for Painting Studio (considered during evaluation)

- Painting supports must be gessoed outside of class and be dried and ready for use during class. Failure to do so will result in a loss of marks.
- Construction of stretchers must be done outside of class (unless time for this is scheduled during class).
- Prepare ideas outside of class as homework and be ready to paint during class.
- Working areas must be kept tidy and free of garbage, paper and left-over food.
- Dirty rags must be taken home or thrown out.
- Photo images and transparencies are to be done outside of class unless otherwise scheduled.
- Use class-time effectively, be prepared to paint when you arrive.
- Students must be considerate of each other at all times during class and when sharing the studio outside of class hours.
- If projects have been taken home to be worked on, they must also be here during class hours.

Writing

All assignments will be evaluated on content as well as form and writing.

It is not necessary for students to achieve a passing grade on any particular component of the course in order to pass the course as a whole.

To pass the course all assignments must be completed or a grade of F will be assigned.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Late Assignment Policy

All assignments must be handed in on time. Late assignments will be penalized by 5% per day, including weekends. Extensions will be given only in extreme circumstances and must be accompanied by supporting documentation but this must be both approved in advance by the instructor, and documented in writing.

Additional Information

Assignments, topical articles, essays and books may be recommended or assigned to individual students.

Course Activities

No field trips are currently planned, however, if an opportunity for a field trip emerges that compliments the learning objectives of the course and is during class hours, students will be notified in due time to allow for questions and organization of local and accessible travel (within Calgary). Note: students will be responsible for their own transportation and for any associated costs.

Students will be provided class time to pursue projects, which will allow for direct feedback. Students should expect, additionally, a minimum of eight to ten hours per week for out-of-class project completion, research and other course-related activities.

Studio Procedures

The creation of art can be a messy process and a studio is only workable if everyone cooperates in keeping it clean. Out of respect and consideration for your classmates and other users of the space, it is expected that everyone will participate in keeping the studio clean and tidy. Please also be mindful of fire and safety regulations concerning equipment and furniture.

Please keep doors closed to ensure proper air circulation due to fumes from oil paint.

DO NOT give anyone the lock combination to the studio doors.

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information

Students are expected to keep their phones off during presentations, demonstrations, lectures and figure drawing sessions. Students are expected to absolutely keep their phones off (texting, etc.) during in-class critiques and discussion.. Failure to maintain these expectations will effect a student's Professionalism and Critical Participation grade.

Class time and office hours are the primary contact periods for instruction and questions. Email may be used for communicating unexpected absences, arranging appointments or general questions. The instructor will endeavor to answer emails within a reasonable period of time (1-3 days) but students should not rely on immediate responses. Course instruction does not occur via email. If students must email their instructor they must do so using professional formatting and language.

Academic Accommodations

The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support> or

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student's Union's used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement at
