Additional Information

Together with LWSO 413, this course replaces LWSO 412.

Course Description

This course starts where LWSO 413 left off, starting with John Rawls and more recent scholars working in the liberal tradition. We examine the implications of these theories for contemporary socio-legal problems around such issues as privacy, campaign finance, and the relationships among liberty, equality and property.

Objectives of the Course

Students are to gain a detailed understanding of liberalism and its workings in Canada, with some comparisons to other jurisdictions. They will enhance their analytical skills and craft thoughtful, coherent, creative arguments about liberalism and its real-world manifestations.

Textbooks and Readings:

Edited versions of cases will be available on Blackboard, as will links to other materials. The following book will be used:

- John Rawls, Justice as Fairness: A Restatement, ed. Erin Kelly (Belknap Press, 2001)

Assignments and Evaluation

- Midterm: Rawls (20%/15%)* – Tues. Feb. 5
- Term paper proposal and bibliography (5%) – Thurs. Feb. 14, 4 pm
- Research essay (35%) – Thurs. Mar. 28, 4 pm
- Final exam (40%/45%)* – in the final exam period

* NOTE: The midterm and final exam will be weighted so as to give students the benefit of their higher mark. If your higher mark is on the midterm, the midterm will count for 20% and the final for 40%. If your higher mark is on the final, the midterm will count for 15% and the final for 45%.

The grade for the course and whether or not a student passes it will be based on the student's accumulated score and will not depend on passing any particular component of the course.

It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment.

Note: Please hand in your essays directly to your instructor if possible. If it is not possible to do so, a daytime drop box is available in SS102; a date stamp is provided for your use. A night drop box is also available for after-hours submission. Assignments will be removed the following morning, stamped with the previous day's date, and placed in the instructor's mailbox. Arrangements may also be made for electronic submissions.

Registrar-scheduled Final Examination: Yes

Please note: If your class is held in the evening, the Registrar's Office will make every attempt to schedule the final exam during the evening; however, there is NO guarantee that the exam will NOT be scheduled during the day.

Policy for Late Assignments

Assignments submitted after the deadline may be penalized with the loss of a grade (e.g.: A- to B+) for each day late.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

This course is conducted in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIP). As one consequence, students should identify themselves on all written work by using their ID number. Also you will be required to provide a piece of picture identification in order to pick up an assignment or look at a final exam.

Schedule of Lectures and Readings

The schedule of lectures and readings will be posted on Blackboard prior to the commencement of classes.

Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources.

Please consult your instructor if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Using the Internet and Electronic Devices

Students may use their computers in class for taking notes, following the PowerPoint outlines of lectures, and other purposes related to the class. You may not record the class without the instructor's permission.

Academic Misconduct

For information on academic misconduct and the consequences thereof please see the current University of Calgary Calendar at the following link;
<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

Academic Accommodation Policy

If you are a student with a disability who may require academic accommodation, it is your responsibility to register with the Disability Resource Centre (220-8237) and discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of the course. For further information, please see <http://www.ucalgary.ca/drc/node/46>

Emergency Evacuation and Assembly points

Please note the evacuation points for this particular classroom. All classrooms on campus exit to specific places in case of emergency. The emergency assembly points differ depending upon where your classroom is located. For information on the emergency evacuation procedures and the assembly points see <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints>

"SAFEWALK" Program

Campus Security will escort individuals day or night -- call 220-5333 for assistance. Use any campus phone, emergency phone or the yellow phone located at most parking lot booths.

Student Representation

There are four Arts reps, with the email addresses arts1@su.ucalgary.ca, arts2@su.ucalgary.ca, arts3@su.ucalgary.ca, and arts4@su.ucalgary.ca. Please contact them if you have questions related to Students Union matters, events, or concerns. For your student ombudsman, please see <http://www.ucalgary.ca/provost/students/ombuds>
