Required Text(s):

- 1) A. Glazebrook and C. Vester (eds.) (2017), Themes in Greek Society and Culture (Oxford).
- 2) M. Gibbs, M. Nikolic and P. Ripat (eds.) (2013), Themes in Roman Society and Culture (Oxford).

Course Description: Why did 300 Spartans have to withstand Persians at Thermopylae? Where was democracy invented? Who assassinated Julius Caesar? What was it like to be an ancient slave? Why did Romans enjoy watching gladiators kill each other? This course will explore these questions and more in an introduction to themes in Greek and Roman history, society, religion, and culture. We will also explore the writings, objects, and buildings that Greeks and Romans created, from written sources like speeches, letters, and poems, to archaeological artefacts like weapons, children's toys, and coins, to sites like temples, palaces, and tombs.

Online elements for this course (if any): Some resources will be posted on D2L. Please note that lecture notes/Powerpoint will not be posted on D2L. It is your responsibility to attend lectures and make notes.

Core Competencies: This course will introduce students to the ancient evidence as well as the larger themes in the study of Greek and Roman history. Students will increase their knowledge of the ancient world through assigned readings, participation in lectures, and memorization assessed through multiple choice exams.

Course Requirements:

Date	Assessment	Weight (%)	Required pass/fail
Friday, 6 Oct. 2017	Midterm #1 (multiple choice)	20%	no
Friday, 3 Nov. 2017	Midterm #2 (multiple choice)	20%	no
Friday, 1 Dec. 2017	Midterm #3 (multiple choice)	20%	no
(registrar scheduled)	1 two-hour final exam (multiple choice)	40%	no

Grading:

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, usually used within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95 - 90	A-	89 - 85
B+	84 - 80	B	79 - 75	B-	74 - 70
C+	69 - 65	C	64 - 60	C-	59 - 55
D+	54 - 53	D	52-50	F	Under 50

N.B. All written assignments will be graded with regard to both form and content.

Policy with regard to missed assignments/assessments: Midterms must be written in class on the day scheduled. Alternative dates for midterms will be permitted only by prior arrangement with the instructor and only under exceptional circumstances, such as serious illness (you must provide a doctor's note or medical certificate) or death in the family. Deferred midterms will similarly be permitted only under exceptional circumstances. Head colds, needing more time to study, or having a rough week do not count!

The registrar-scheduled exam must be written on the date scheduled. In accordance with university policy, deferred examinations are permitted only in exceptional circumstances such as serious illness (only with official 'Physician/Counsellor Statement' form), religious observance, or domestic affliction (with written evidence). For further details see http://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final.

There are no optional/make-up/remedial assessments in this course. There is no rounding-up of grades. In order to maintain fairness for the entire class, I am not able to add extra marks/extra percentage points to final grades.

Expectations for student conduct in this course: Students are expected to do the assigned reading for each class, and to participate in in-class activities and discussion. The lectures and textbooks complement, but do not replace, each other; you will be assessed on material from both the lectures and the textbooks.

Electronic Device Policy: Devices used for note-taking are permitted. You are expected to show respect for your fellow students and your instructor by not wearing headphones, answering phone calls, playing music, or watching your own videos during class. Recording any part of any lectures in any form must first be approved by the instructor in writing and is for individual private study only.

Syllabus:

A complete syllabus will be made available in the first week of class.

Academic Honesty:

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>). If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, or librarian staff.

Student Accommodations:

The student accommodation policy can be found at: ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.

Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the course instructor.

Freedom of Information and Privacy

This course is conducted in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPP): <http://www.ucalgary.ca/secretariat/privacy>

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act indicates that assignments given by you to your course instructor will remain confidential unless otherwise stated before submission. The assignment cannot be returned to anyone else without your express permission. Similarly, any information about yourself that you share with your course instructor will not be given to anyone else without your permission. As one consequence, students should identify themselves on all written work by placing their name on the front page and their ID number on each subsequent page.

Student Ombudsperson and Students' Union Representative

The Student Ombuds Office provides independent, impartial and confidential support for students who require assistance and advice in addressing issues and concerns related to their academic careers. See www.ucalgary.ca/provost/students/ombuds for more information.

The Students' Union Faculty of Arts representative can be reached at arts1@ucalgary.ca.

Emergency Evacuation Assembly Point

In case of an emergency evacuation during class, students must gather at the designated assembly point nearest to the classroom. The list of assembly points is found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints. Please check this website and not the nearest assembly point for this course.

Safewalk

The Safewalk program provides volunteers to walk students safely to their destination anywhere on campus (including McMahon Stadium, Health Sciences, Student Family Housing, the Alberta Children's Hospital and the University LRT station). This service is free and available to students, staff and campus visitors 24 hrs/day, 365 days a year. Call 403-220-5333 or use one of the Help phones located throughout campus to request a walk.
