Course Description: Why did 300 Spartans have to withstand Persians at Thermopylae? Where was democracy invented? Who assassinated Julius Caesar? What was it like to be an ancient slave? Why did Romans enjoy watching gladiators kill each other? This course will explore these questions and more in an introduction to themes in Greek and Roman history, society, religion, and culture. We will also explore the writings, objects, and buildings that Greeks and Romans created, from written sources like speeches, letters, and poems, to archaeological artefacts like weapons, children's toys, and coins, to sites like temples, palaces, and tombs.

Online elements for this course: Some resources will be posted on Desire2Learn (D2L). However, please note that lecture notes/PowerPoint will not be posted on D2L. It is your responsibility to attend lectures and make notes.
