REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:

Neer, Richard T. Greek Art and Archaeology: A New History, c.2500 – c.150 BCE. New York: Thames and Hudson, 2012.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A survey of Greek art and architecture from the Bronze Age to the Hellenistic period.

Please note that slides from PowerPoint presentations do form a major component of the lectures, making regular attendance important for success in the course. You are responsible for all of the material discussed in class, including the visual material, as well as the information provided within the required, and any assigned supplementary readings. Examinations are based upon all of these components.

You will also have access to D2L, where the PowerPoint lectures for each class will be posted. Please note: due to copyright restrictions, some images may not be able to be posted on D2L. These will be noted in class. If you don't know how to access D2L, or having trouble signing in, please contact your instructor.

Last minute requests will only be considered in emergency situations.

Syllabus

A full course syllabus will be made available by the first week of classes on D2L.

References and Bibliography

The Department of Classics and Religion uses the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style and requires references and bibliographies to adhere to the Chicago citation system. You can find a quick guide here: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. Alternatively please consult with the library staff for help and advice using the Chicago citation style.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>) If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, librarian staff or the Chicago manual of style.

Student Accommodations

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf.
