Required Text(s):

Karen Armstrong, A Short History of Myth. Vintage Canada, 2006 Edition.

David A Leeming, The World of Myth. Oxford University Press, 2014 Edition.

Course Description: What is a myth? What is a religious myth? How do myths express worldview? Do religious myths still influence the western worldview?

This course will provide an introduction to the study of religious myths, focusing on the myths of practiced religion. The course will be structured according to chronological categories in A Short History of Myth by Karen Armstrong and include primary source readings from The World of Myth by David Leeming. Major topics include creation, the flood, human condition and destiny, divinity and transcendence, revelation, the apocalypse, heroes and savior figures, and sacred places.

The course will be composed of five modules:

- Module 1 Introduction to Myth
- Module 2 Pre-historical Mythologies
- Module 3 Axial Age Mythologies
- Module 4 Post-Axial Age Mythologies
- Module 5 The Great Western Transformation

Core Competencies:

Upon completion of this course, students will become familiar with:

- key terms and concepts in the study of religion and mythology
- the role of myth shaping religious worldviews

- a dimensional view of religion
- chronological developments in the construction of mythologies
- myths of the Mesopotamians and Israelites
- essential myths and narratives in the major world religions
- higher criticism, modern hermeneutics, and demythologizing
- paradigm shifts in mythical thinking

Grading

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, standardized within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95 - 90	A-	89 - 85
B+	84 - 80	B	79 - 75	B-	74 - 70
C+	69 - 65	C	64 - 60	C-	59 - 55
D+	54 - 53	D	52-50	F	Under 50

Adjusted Grades: The instructor will implement a standard measure of adjustment for grades. Please do not send email inquiries asking the instructor to increase or ‘round up’ your final grade.

Policy with regard to missed assessments: If a student misses a test, the student must provide the instructor with supporting documentation (note from doctor, counselor, accident report, etc.) within 48 hours of the absence. If documentation is not provided within 48 hours, the student will not be provided an opportunity to make up the test and will receive a numerical mark of zero. There are of course many reasons for missing a test that are not considered to be valid, including but not limited to: work schedules that conflict with the day of a test, family functions that conflict with the day of a test, forgetting about a test, traffic congestion on the day of a test.

Email: Please identify the subject of your email and clearly identify yourself by name and the course you are registered in. Please do not send email inquiries related to dates and deadlines. Students shall refer to the university calendar and course outline for schedule information. Inquiries related to assessments must be sent no less than 24 hours before a deadline.

Syllabus: A complete syllabus will be made available the first week of class.

Extra Assignments: There are no extra assignments for this course. Students will not be given an opportunity to submit extra work or retake tests to increase their grade.

Weighting of Module Tests: The weighting for module tests is identified above. The weighting of individual tests will not be changed.

References and Bibliography:

The Department of Classics and Religion uses the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style and requires references and bibliographies to adhere to the Chicago citation system. You can find a quick guide here: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. Alternatively please consult with the library staff for help and advice using the Chicago citation style.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>). If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, or librarian staff.

Student Accommodations
