

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY
FACULTY OF ARTS
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS AND RELIGION

COURSE OUTLINE – FALL 2014

Course	RELS 201 L03: Jews, Christians and Muslims
Time	This is an online course that will be delivered through the Desire2Learn (D2L) learning management system.
Instructor	Craig W. C. Ginn, PhD
Office Hours	Online accessibility
Office	SS 502
E-mail	cwcginn@ucalgary.ca
Telephone	220-5612

Required Text(s): World Religions: A Guide to the Essentials. Thomas A. Robinson and Hillary Rodrigues, editors. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2010, Print and CD-ROM.

In addition to the textbook readings, students will be required to read select excerpts from sacred texts and online sources. Links will be posted on D2L.

Course Description: This course will provide an introduction to the western faiths, focusing on Judaism, Christianity (with some attention to Mormonism and Pentecostalism) and Islam. Each tradition will be presented according to its historical background, cultural context(s), leading figures, textual tradition, institutions, and doctrinal distinctions.

Students will be guided through an introductory reading of select texts (in English translation) of the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur'an, and guided in the examination of revelation, historical context, textual criticism, and issues in exegesis. The development and fragmentation of each faith will be discussed, highlighting cultural shifts and sectarian distinctions.

The course will be composed of five modules:

- Module 1 Introduction to the Study of Religion (chapter one)
- Module 2 Concepts and Methods, Ancient Religions (chapter two)
- Module 3 Judaism (chapter three)
- Module 4 Christianity (chapter four)
- Module 5 Islam (chapter five)

Course content will be delivered through readings (text and web-based), audio files (lectures and interviews) and online documentaries available through the University of Calgary library (Films on Demand).

Online elements for this course: Accessing online texts of the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur'an. Links will be posted on D2L. Accessing online documentaries and video recordings. Completing online tests.

NOTE: All tests for this course, including the final exam, are completed online. Module tests will be available for a 12-hour period of time on the day assigned for the test. Module tests are timed, requiring students to complete the test within a specified time limit. It is important for students to take extra care to ensure that they have access to dependable power and internet service. Do not rely on your computer battery as your only power source when taking the exam. “My battery died” will not be considered an acceptable reason for failing to complete the test. For students who experience interruption to internet service while taking the exam, please contact the instructor as soon as internet service is restored. In the meantime, document your location, and the date and time of the interruption to internet service. If a student cannot complete the exam during the 12-hour period of time on the day assigned for the test due to “technical difficulties”, such as interruption to internet service or computer malfunction, the student must notify the instructor within 24 hours via email.

Core Competencies: Upon completion of this course, students will become familiar with:

- approaches and obstacles to the study of religion
- key terms and concepts in the study of religion
- dimensional and comparative analysis of religion
- the historical context of the western religious traditions
- the chronological development of the western religious traditions
- key themes and teachings in the western religious traditions
