Required Text(s):

World Religions: A Guide to the Essentials, Thomas A. Robinson and Hillary Rodrigues (editors)
Baker Academic, November 2014, Print.

Course Description:

This course will provide an introduction to the western faiths focusing on Judaism, Christianity (including Mormonism and Pentecostalism), and Islam. Each tradition will be presented according to its historical background, textual tradition, cultural context(s), leading figures, institutions, practices, and key beliefs/doctrines. The development and fragmentation of each faith will be discussed, highlighting cultural shifts and sectarian distinctions. Special attention will be given to Abrahamic covenant, concepts of revelation, the office of the prophet, conquest/war, anti-Semitism, and dimensional analysis.

Students will be guided through an introductory reading of select texts (in English translation) of the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur'an, and guided in the examination of revelation, historical context, textual criticism, and issues in exegesis.

The course will be composed of four modules:

- Module 1 Introduction to the Study of Religion (chapter one)
- Module 2 Judaism (chapter three)
- Module 3 Christianity (chapter four)
- Module 4 Islam (chapter five)

Online elements for this course:

In addition to the textbook readings, students will be introduced to sacred texts available online.

Core Competencies:

Upon completion of this course, students will become familiar with:

- approaches and obstacles to the study of religion
- key terms and concepts in the study of religion
- dimensional analysis of religion
- the historical context of the western religious traditions
- the chronological development of the western religious traditions
- key themes and teachings in the western religious traditions
- key religious texts and approaches to interpretation
- the development of sectarianism within each of the western religious traditions

Course Requirements:

Date	Assessment	Weight (%)
January 25	Module 1 Test (Introductory Materials): Includes chapter 1 and lectures	10%
February 26	Module 2 Test (Judaism): Includes chapter 3, Hebrew Bible readings, and lectures	30%
March 23	Module 3 Test (Christianity): Includes chapter 4, Hebrew Bible readings, New Testament readings, and lectures	30%
Registrar-scheduled	Final Exam: Includes chapter 5, Hebrew Bible readings, New Testament readings, Qur'an readings, and lectures	30%

Grading:

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, standardized within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95 - 90	A-	89 - 85
B+	84 - 80	B	79 - 75	B-	74 - 70
C+	69 - 65	C	64 - 60	C-	59 - 55
D+	54 - 53	D	52-50	F	Under 50

Adjusted Grades: The instructor will implement a standard measure of .5% adjustment for grades. Please do not send email inquiries asking the instructor to increase or ‘round up’ your final grade.

Policy with regard to missed assessments: If a student misses a test, the student must provide the instructor with supporting documentation (note from doctor, counselor, accident report, etc.) within 48 hours of the absence. If documentation is not provided within 48 hours, the student will not be provided an opportunity to make up the test and will receive a numerical mark of zero. There are of course many reasons for missing the test that are not considered to be valid, including but not limited to: work schedules that conflict with the day of the test, family functions that conflict with the day of the test, forgetting about the test, traffic congestion on the day of the test, and having no internet connection on the day of the test.

Syllabus: A complete syllabus will be made available the first week of class.

Extra Assignments: There are no extra assignments for this course. Students will not be given an opportunity to submit extra work or retake tests to increase their grade.

Weighting of Module Tests: The weighting for module tests is identified above. The weighting of tests will not be changed to accommodate individual student requests.

Expectations for student conduct in this course:

Please be courteous toward other students in the course. For students who raise questions during class, please contribute to the resourceful use of classroom time by limiting the number of questions you ask in each class. While evaluative inquiries are permitted, students are encouraged to steer their inquiries toward objective investigation rather than confessional or adversarial agendas.

Expectations for email correspondence in this course:

Please identify the subject of your email and clearly identify yourself by name and the course you are registered in. Please do not send email inquiries related to dates and deadlines. Students shall refer to the university calendar, course outline, and final exam schedule for schedule information. Inquiries related to exams or assignments must be sent no less than 24 hours before a deadline. Do not ask the instructor to preview your exam answers and study materials.

Electronic Device Policy:

Laptops are permitted if used for the purpose of taking lecture notes. Do not use laptops during class for email, Facebook, or other nonacademic activities. Cell phones must be turned off during the entire class time. Texting during class is not permitted. Taking pictures in the classroom is not permitted. This includes taking pictures of data projector images and slides. Students that distract the instructor or other students due to the misuse of electronic devices during class will be requested to leave the classroom.

Recording of lectures is prohibited without the consent of the instructor. According to Academic Regulations E.6, "With the permission of the instructor, students may tape record lectures, provided that the student and instructor sign a Release form available from departmental and faculty offices. A copy of the Release form shall be retained by the instructor and by the department in which the course is offered."

Requests for makeup tests and/or assignments:

This course does not provide makeup tests or assignments.

Visitors:

If space permits, students may request to bring a visitor to attend a lecture. All visitors must be currently registered at the University of Calgary. Send all requests to the course instructor by email at least 24 hours in advance of the lecture, providing the name and student ID of the visitor(s).

References and Bibliography:

The Department of Classics and Religion uses the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style and requires references and bibliographies to adhere to the Chicago citation system. You can find a quick guide here: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. Alternatively please consult with the library staff for help and advice using the Chicago citation style.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>.) If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, librarian staff or the Chicago manual of style.

Student Accommodations

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf.
