FACULTY OF ARTS
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS AND RELIGION

COURSE OUTLINE – WINTER 2016

Course	RELS 201 L02: Jews, Christians, and Muslims
Time	This is an online course that will be delivered through the Desire2Learn (D2L) learning management system.
Instructor	Craig W. C. Ginn, PhD
Office Hours	Tuesday/Thursday 1:30-2:30 in SS 555, or by appointment
Office	SS 502
E-mail	cwcginn@ucalgary.ca
Telephone	403-220-5612

Required Text(s): World Religions: A Guide to the Essentials. Thomas A. Robinson and Hillary Rodrigues, editors. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2014, Print.

In addition to the textbook readings, students will be required to read select excerpts from the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur'an. Links will be posted on D2L.

Course Description: This course will provide an introduction to the western faiths, focusing on Judaism, Christianity (with some attention to Mormonism and Pentecostalism) and Islam. Each tradition will be presented according to its historical background, cultural context(s), leading figures, textual tradition, institutions, and doctrinal distinctives. Students will be guided through an introductory reading of select texts (in English translation) of the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur'an.

The course will be composed of five modules:

- Module 1 Introduction to the Study of Religion (chapter one)
- Module 2 Concepts and Methods, Ancient Religions (chapter two)
- Module 3 Judaism (chapter three)
- Module 4 Christianity (chapter four)
- Module 5 Islam (chapter five)

Course content will be delivered through readings, audio files, and online documentaries available through the University of Calgary library (Films on Demand).

Online elements for this course: Accessing online texts of the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament, and the Qur'an. Links will be posted on D2L. Accessing online documentaries and video recordings. Completing online tests.

NOTE: All tests for this course, including the final exam, are completed online. Module tests will be available for a 14-hour period of time (8 am-10 pm) on the day assigned for the test. Every student in the course is expected to take the test within that period of time. Module tests are timed, requiring students to complete the test within a specified time limit. It is important for students to take extra care to ensure that they have access to dependable power and internet service. Do not rely on your computer battery as your only power source when taking the exam. “My battery died” will not be considered an acceptable reason for failing to complete the test. For students who experience interruption to internet service while taking the exam, please contact the instructor as soon as internet service is restored. In the meantime, document your location, and the date and time of the interruption to internet service. If a student cannot complete the exam during the 14-hour period of time on the day assigned for the test due to “technical difficulties”, such as interruption to internet service or computer malfunction, the student must notify the instructor within 24 hours via email.

Core Competencies: Upon completion of this course, students will become familiar with:

- approaches and obstacles to the study of religion
- key terms and concepts in the study of religion
- dimensional and comparative analysis of religion
- the historical context of the western religious traditions
- the chronological development of the western religious traditions
- key themes and teachings in the western religious traditions
- key religious texts and approaches to interpretation
- the development of sectarianism within each of the western religious traditions

Grading

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, standardized within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95 - 90	A-	89 - 85
B+	84 - 80	B	79 - 75	B-	74 - 70
C+	69 - 65	C	64 - 60	C-	59 - 55
D+	54 - 53	D	52-50	F	Under 50

N.B. All written assignments will be graded with regard to both form and content.

Adjusted Grades: The instructor will implement a standard measure of .5% adjustment for grades. Please do not send email inquiries asking the instructor to increase or ‘round up’ your final grade.

Policy with regard to missed assessments: If a student misses a test, the student must provide the instructor with supporting documentation (note from doctor, counselor, accident report, etc.) within 48 hours of the absence. If documentation is not provided within 48 hours, the student will not be provided an opportunity to make up the test and will receive a numerical mark of zero. There are of course many reasons for missing the test that are not considered to be valid, including but not limited to: work schedules that conflict with the day of the test, family functions that conflict with the day of the test, forgetting about the test, traffic congestion on the day of the test, and having no internet connection on the day of the test.

Email: Please identify the subject of your email and clearly identify yourself by name and the course you are registered in. Please do not send email inquiries related to dates and deadlines. Students shall refer to the university calendar, course outline, and final exam schedule for schedule information. Inquiries related to exams or assignments must be sent no less than 24 hours before a deadline.

Syllabus: A complete syllabus will be made available the first week of class.

Extra Assignments: There are no extra assignments for this course. Students will not be given an opportunity to submit extra work or retake tests to increase their grade.

Weighting of Module Tests: The weighting for module tests is identified above. The weighting of tests will not be changed to accommodate individual student requests.

Reviewing Tests: The online tests for this course display the student’s final score. Test answers are not displayed. For students interested in seeing individual test answers, please make an appointment with the instructor at the end of the term after all tests are completed. At that time you can review all of your test answers.

References and Bibliography:

The Department of Classics and Religion uses the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style and requires references and bibliographies to adhere to the Chicago citation system. You can find a quick guide here: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. Alternatively please consult with the library staff for help and advice using the Chicago citation style.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>). If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, or librarian staff.

Student Accommodations

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at
