Doniger, Wendy. 2004. Hindu Myths (NY: Penguin).

Course Description:

This course covers elements of the Hindu, Buddhist, and Jain religious traditions of Asia.

Online elements for this course: This course is entirely online, except for the midterm and final, which will take place on campus. Both the midterm and final are registrar-scheduled. These dates have not been confirmed as of the writing of this outline, but I will post them as soon as they are. The tentative date for the midterm is Sat. June 2, from 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Core Competencies:

Students will read and interpret primary South Asian texts in English translation.

Students will assess the work of contemporary authors.

Students will identify themes in South Asian myths.

Students will explain fundamental concepts in South Asian religious traditions.

Students will identify arguments for doctrinal positions within South Asian religious traditions.

Policy with Regard to Missed Assignments:

Students MUST take the midterm and final on campus on the day they are scheduled. No exceptions without appropriate medical documentation/accommodation letters.

All lectures will be posted to D2L.

- For program planning and advice, students in the Faculty of Arts will contact The Arts Students' Centre (ASC). Drop in at SS102, call at 403-220-3580 or email at ascarts@ucalgary.ca. You can also visit the Faculty of Arts website at <http://arts.ucalgary.ca/undergraduate> which has detailed information on common academic concerns.

- For registration (add/drop/swap), paying fees and assistance with your Student Centre, contact Enrolment Services at (403) 210-ROCK [7625] or visit them at the MacKimmie Library.

Freedom of Information and Privacy

This course is conducted in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIP): <http://www.ucalgary.ca/secretariat/privacy>

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act indicates that assignments given by you to your course instructor will remain confidential unless otherwise stated before submission. The assignment cannot be returned to anyone else without your express permission. Similarly, any information about yourself that you share with your course instructor will not be given to anyone else without your permission. As one consequence, students should identify themselves on all written work by placing their name on the front page and their ID number on each subsequent page.

Student Ombudsperson and Students' Union Representative

The Student Ombuds Office provides independent, impartial and confidential support for students who require assistance and advice in addressing issues and concerns related to their academic careers. See www.ucalgary.ca/provost/students/ombuds for more information.

The Students' Union Faculty of Arts representative can be reached at arts1@ucalgary.ca.

Emergency Evacuation Assembly Point

In case of an emergency evacuation during class, students must gather at the designated assembly point nearest to the classroom. The list of assembly points is found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints. Please check this website and not the nearest assembly point for this course.

Safewalk

The Safewalk program provides volunteers to walk students safely to their destination anywhere on campus (including McMahon Stadium, Health Sciences, Student Family Housing, the Alberta Children's Hospital and the University LRT station). This service is free and available to students, staff and campus visitors 24 hrs/day, 365 days a year. Call 403-220-5333 or use one of the Help phones located throughout campus to request a walk.

Health and Wellness

There are services available to students to help with physical and mental health, including the SU Wellness Centre: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/wellnesscentre/>.
