Required Text(s) World Religions: A Guide to the Essentials. Thomas A. Robinson and Hillary Rodrigues, editors. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2010, Print and CD-ROM.

In addition to the textbook readings, students will be required to read select excerpts from sacred texts and online sources. Links will be posted on Blackboard.

Course Description This course will provide an introduction to eastern religions focusing on Hinduism and Buddhism, with some attention to Jainism, Confucianism, Daoism, and Sikhism. Each tradition will be presented according to its historical background, cultural context(s), textual tradition, leading figures, institutions, practices, and beliefs/philosophies. Students will be guided through an introductory reading of select excerpts of sacred texts (in English translation). Special attention will be given to understandings of the self, the theistic spectrum, the human condition, liberation, ritual, devotion, moral teachings, aspects of authority, philosophy, sectarianism, and dimensional analysis and comparison. Course material will also consider the introduction of eastern religions and philosophies to the west.
