There will be no Registrar scheduled Final Exam for this course

*Students may choose to count their lowest grade for 10% and their highest two grades for 45%.

Policies

1. I do not make my lecture notes available to students. If you miss class, you should try to borrow lecture notes from another student in class.
2. All exams must be written in order to pass the course. Students may not leave the examination room until handing in the completed exam. Anyone caught cheating will receive a grade of 0.
3. Students are to be fully engaged in class. Active interaction with the instructor, and with other students is a vital component of this course. Talking to other students during lecture, using cell phones, texting, tweeting, watching videos, internet surfing and listening to music are all prohibited. Students who engage in these activities will be asked to leave the lecture hall since it is disruptive to other students as well as the instructor.
4. Students should regularly check the email that is registered with the university for class announcements.

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, standardized within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95 - 90	A-	89 - 85
B+	84 - 80	B	79 - 75	B-	74 - 70
C+	69 - 65	C	64 - 60	C-	59 - 55
D+	54 - 53	D	52-50	F	Under 50

N.B. All written assignments will be graded with regard to both form and content.

Policy with regard to missed assignments/assessments:

Exams must be written on the exam date. In the case of a missed exam, students must contact the instructor no later than 24 hours after the missed exams. All make-up exams will be held during the last week of classes and will be completely different from the original exam. Make-up exams are only allowed in cases of emergency and require official documentation (doctor's note, bereavement notice, police report).

Expectations for student conduct in this course:

Students are expected to treat the instructor and other students with courtesy and respect, both in the classroom and online.

Students are responsible for attending classes and for reading and reflecting upon all class material, including film. My lectures offer analyses and interpretations of the readings, not summaries.

Students are also responsible for checking their email for announcements from the instructor. Note, you should check the email that is registered with the university.

Electronic Device Policy: No electronic equipment will be permitted during lecture times. This includes laptops, Ipads, Ipods and cell phones. If you have a disability that prevents you from taking notes by hand, you should provide a doctor's note or a note from Student Accessibility Services.

Syllabus:

A complete syllabus will be made available the first week of class.

References and Bibliography:
