Required Texts: Reichenbach, Bruce. 1990. The Law of Karma: A Philosophical Study (Honolulu: University of Hawaii Press).

*This book is currently out of print. The bookstore is printing copies for the course. Copies of the book are also available online (for much less money!) in limited supplies. Each student must have a copy of the book.

Optional Texts: Readings Posted to D2L

Course Description: This course interprets and evaluates the theory of karma, with an emphasis on Hindu texts and traditions.

Course Requirements:

Date	Assessment	Weight (%)	Required pass/fail
Thurs., Feb. 12	Paper One	25%	NO
Thurs., Mar. 12	Paper Two	35%	NO
Thurs., Apr. 16	Paper Three	40%	NO

Grading

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, standardized within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95.9 - 90	A-	89.9 - 85
B+	84.9 - 80	B	79.9 - 75	B-	74.9 - 70

D+	54.9 - 53	D	52.9-50	F	Under 50

N.B. All written assignments will be graded with regard to both form and content.

Policy with regard to missed assignments/assessments:

All assignments must be turned in on the day they are due. Late papers will have 2 points deducted per day.

Expectations for student conduct in this course:

I expect students to attend every class and arrive on time with the assigned readings completed, ready to discuss the material. Each student must have a copy of the book (paper or electronic), and bring the book to each class meeting.

Electronic Device Policy:

Students must get written permission to record any portion of the class, with the understanding that the recordings will only be used by that student.

Syllabus:

A complete syllabus will be made available the first week of class.

References and Bibliography:

The Department of Classics and Religion uses the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style and requires references and bibliographies to adhere to the Chicago citation system. You can find a quick guide here: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html. Alternatively please consult with the library staff for help and advice using the Chicago citation style.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>.)If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, librarian staff or the Chicago manual of style.

Academic Accommodation

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodation. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with Student Accessibility Services, please contact their office at 403-220-8237. Students who have not registered with Student Accessibility Services are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of the course.
