Course Description:

This course focuses on the principle that “markets are usually a good way to organize economic activity”.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes:

This course will enable students to understand microeconomic issues, which arise in everyday life. We attempt to answer questions: how markets work, when they work well, when they do not work well and the role of the government in resource allocation. As well, this course will prepare students for more advanced courses in microeconomics.

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

- | | | | |
|------|-------------------------|-------------|---|
| (i) | 3 assignments, 20% each | 60% | Due dates: May 24, June 7, and June 21 at the beginning of the class. |
| (ii) | Final examination | 40% | |
| | | 100% | |

Grading Scale

A+	95 – 100	B	73 – 76	C-	60 – 62
A	85 – 94	B-	70 – 72	D+	56 – 59
A-	80 – 84	C+	67 – 69	D	50 – 55
B+	77 – 79	C	63 – 66	F	0 – 49

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a factor in the evaluation of student work.

Any student work which remains undistributed after the last day of classes will be available to students through the instructor's office during his office hours.

Assignments

1. All assignments will be due at the beginning of the class on the due date. Late assignments will not be accepted.
2. Course material covered in a particular assignment will typically be covered in class at least ½ week before the assignment is due and assignments can be done at any time prior to the due date. Given these factors, only situations where someone can document illness or domestic affliction for an extended period (i.e. the entire 7 or more days prior to the assignment due date) would possibly warrant shifting the assignment weight to the final exam.
3. Assignments will also include an essay question.
4. Students are encouraged to discuss their assignments and essays with their classmates, but each must write up their own answers. Copying or misrepresenting someone else's work as your own is a serious offence, which will not be tolerated. Your attention is directed to the "Statement of Intellectual Honesty" in the 2017-2018 Calendar. Taking credit for someone else's work is something for which I show zero tolerance.

Final Examination

1. Final exam will consist of both (i) the multiple-choice questions and (ii) short essay question.
2. It will be a Registrar scheduled final examination, lasting 2 hours. It will be a comprehensive examination of all-material covered in the course. It will be closed-book examination.
3. It must be completed during the specified time. Extra time will not be given for any reason.
4. The use of a non-programmable calculator during test and examination is permitted. The use of graphing calculators, cell phones, and computers is not permitted.
