Course Description:

This course addresses the measurement of economic variables related to the performance of an economy (e.g., national income, inflation, unemployment, and growth), the determinants of these variables, and how these variables are influenced by institutions and government policy. There is a particular focus on understanding economic fluctuations in the short-run and economic growth in the long-run. The objective is to understand how the macroeconomy works, when it works well, when it does not work well, and the role for governments in influencing how it works.

Course Objective:

Students who complete Econ 203 successfully will be able to understand introductory macroeconomic theory, solve basic macroeconomic problems, and use these techniques to think about policy questions affecting the economy. This will include being able to understand measurement issues associated with macroeconomic variables; the determinants of national income, unemployment, exchange rates, interest rates, and inflation; the determinants of economic growth and the effects of government policy and institutions on promoting economic growth; the causes of business cycles and the effects of policy responses; the implications of being a small open economy for macroeconomic performance and government policy; and the relationship between financial markets and the real economy.

Course Learning Outcomes:

The curriculum for Econ 203 is organized around six broad topic areas. The key principles and models are introduced in the context of addressing these six broad topic areas. The six topic areas are:

- Introduction and Measurement of Economic Activity: Students are introduced to the key macroeconomic variables of interest, national income, unemployment, inflation, interest rates, growth rates, and exchange rates, as well as how these are measured, and the difficulties associated with their measurement and interpretation.
- Real Economy in the Long Run:
 - ✓ The determinants of national income in the long run, emphasizing the determinants of economic growth in a market economy and the role of government policies and institutions on the rate of economic growth. The concept and determinants of productivity and its importance for the standard of living.
 - ✓ The functioning of the labour market and the determinants of employment and unemployment.
- Money and Prices in the Long Run. The focus is on money, prices, and interest rates in the long run.
 - ✓ Defining the roles of money and the characteristics that make something money. Understanding the banking system, fractional reserve banking, and how central monetary

- authorities can control the money supply. Design of monetary policy and central bank independence.
- ✓ The causes, costs, and benefits of inflation.
- ✓ The linkage between monetary policy and interest rates.
- Economic Fluctuations and Stabilization: Short Run Macroeconomics. Macroeconomic modelling in the short run: aggregate demand and aggregate supply. Business cycles and the inherent instability of market economies and the potential role for fiscal and monetary policy to stabilize the economy. Linkages between the real and financial sides of the economy, including financial leveraging and asset bubbles and their liquidation. The Philips curve, supply shocks, and expectations. The effects and consequences of government debt and deficits.
- Open economy macro. Foreign exchange rates and markets, balance of payments, and international capital flows. The implications of a small open economy for interest rates, exchange rates, and the level of economic activity, as well as on the effect of government policy.
- Debates in Macroeconomic Policy.

Desire2Learn:

This course will make use of the Desire2Learn (D2L) platform. Students who are registered in the course can log on at <http://d2l.ucalgary.ca> through their student centre. Please note that D2L features a class e-mail list that may be used to distribute course-related information. These e-mails go to your University of Calgary e-mail addresses only.

Lectures:

Lectures will be delivered In-Person at the Registrar scheduled times and Location.

Tutorials:

Students are expected to attend the weekly tutorial section to which they have been assigned. During the tutorials, the TA will discuss pre-assigned questions and additional material relevant to the course that is not covered in lectures.

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

Assignments #1 (July 18)	10%
Midterm Exam (July 21, 2022)	30%
Assignment #2 (August 8)	10%
Final Exam (To be Scheduled by the Registrar's Office)	50%
 Total Weight	 100%

Assignments will involve a combination of problems and multiples choice questions. The first assignment is due on July 18, 11:59 MDT and second assignment is due August 8, 11:59 MDT. The assignments will be done and submitted on D2L.

The official grading system will be used. See <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html>.

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

If a student's letter grade on the final exam exceeds their midterm(s) letter grade, the weight of the midterm(s) is (are) transferred to the final exam at the discretion of the instructor. The student must have written the midterm(s) or provided supporting documentation for the absence(s) such as a medical note or statutory declaration.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a factor in the evaluation of student work. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>.

Course material dealing with a particular assignment will typically be covered in class at least 3 days before the assignment is due; thus, assignments can be completed at any time up to and including the due date. Given these factors, only situations where someone can document illness or domestic affliction for an extended period (i.e., the entire 7 days prior to the due date) would possibly warrant shifting the assignment weight to the final exam. Furthermore, technical problems can be expected to occur with computer systems (and internet availability) so it may be a good idea to not wait until the last minute to submit your assignment.

Any student work which remains undistributed after the last day of classes will be available to students through the instructor's office during the instructor's office hours.

The final examination will be comprehensive, scheduled by the Registrar, held in a classroom, and last 2 hours. If a student cannot write their final exam on the date assigned by the Registrar's Office, they need to apply for a deferred exam <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html>. Under no circumstance will this be accommodated by the Department.

The midterm will include chapters covered in class up to a point as will be communicated in class by the instructor. Tests and exams WILL involve multiple choice questions. Assignments, however, will involve solving problem and applications.

Programmable calculators, cellphones, textbooks, course notes, and other electronic devices will not be allowed during the writing of tests or final examinations. Students are reminded that simply being able to access their cellphone during an exam is academic misconduct.

If there is a change to exams and assignments dates indicated above, the exact date for the in-class midterm will be announced at least one week in advance.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED QUIZZES/TESTS/EXAMS under any circumstances, nor may the quizzes/tests/exams be written early. Students unable to write the quizzes/tests/exams because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the final examination; otherwise, a grade of zero will be assigned.
