Fall 2018

Course Description:

Examination of the institutions behind and economic rationale for Canadian government policy relating to public expenditures and taxation. Topics include the history and present structure of government spending and taxation, tax expenditures, inter-jurisdictional issues, and program design.

Objective/Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course you will understand the broad institutional details regarding the system of public finance in Canada. You will also be able to use basic economic principles to analyze the various programs in terms of their implications for economic efficiency and equity.

Course Outline:

A detailed list of topics and readings will be provided during the first week of classes. Topics covered will include:

Fiscal Federalism
Personal Income Taxation
Corporate Income Taxation
Income Inequality and Poverty
Public Education
Health Care
Public Pensions

Prerequisites:

Economics 201 and 203.

Required Textbook(s):

None.

There is no required textbook for the course; this is a readings based course and students are responsible for all of the readings. Readings for each topic (typically one or two per topic) will be provided as the course proceeds. Most of these readings will be available on the Internet and students are responsible for finding them on their own. Readings that are not available on the web will be posted to D2L.

Books on Reserve:

H. Rosen, J.-F. Wen, T. Snoddon, Public Finance in Canada, McGraw-Hill Ryerson, 5th Canadian Edition

Desire2Learn:

This course will make use of the Desire2Learn (D2L) platform. Students who are registered in the course can log on at <http://d2l.ucalgary.ca> through their student centre. Please note that D2L features a class e-mail list that may be used to distribute course-related information. These e-mails go to your University of Calgary e-mail addresses only. Course announcements will be made in the News section of D2L and students are responsible for checking for these announcements.

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

Midterm 1 (TBA)	25%
Midterm 2 (TBA)	25%
Final	50%

Tests and final exams are marked on a numerical (percentage) basis. The final course grade is then calculated using the weights indicated above, and converted to a letter grade using the following letter grade equivalences (the lower threshold for each letter grade category is required to achieve the associated letter grade, as such numerical grades will be truncated and will not be rounded up; i.e., a numerical grade of 79.9% will receive a letter grade of B+):

A+	95 – 100	B	73 – 76	C-	60 – 62
A	85 – 94	B-	70 – 72	D+	56 – 59
A-	80 – 84	C+	67 – 69	D	50 – 55
B+	77 – 79	C	63 – 66	F	0 – 49

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a factor in the evaluation of student work.

Any student work which remains undistributed after the last day of classes will be available to students through the instructor's office during the instructor's office hours.

The FINAL EXAM will be comprehensive, scheduled by the Registrar, held in a classroom, and last 2 hours. If a student cannot write their final exam on the date assigned by the Registrar's Office, they need to apply for a deferred exam www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final. Under no circumstance will this accommodation be made by the Department.

Tests and exams may involve multiple choice questions. Non-programmable calculators WILL be allowed during the writing of tests or final examinations.

The exact date for the in-class midterm exams will be announced at least one week in advance.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED MIDTERM EXAM under any circumstances, nor may the exam be written early. Students unable to write the midterm exam because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the final examination; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned. Documentation may take the form of a Statutory Declaration (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/n-1.html>). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are available to students at no charge, on campus.
