Course Description:

Examination of the institutions behind and economic rationale for Canadian government policy relating to public expenditures and taxation. Topics include the history and present structure of government spending and taxation, tax expenditures, inter-jurisdictional issues, and program design.

Course Learning Outcomes:

- a. Develop skills around the use and interpretation of economic methods (and basic mathematics), in particular the use of welfare economics as the “lens” through which to view the rationale for government involvement in the provision of various public goods and services.
- b. Know and understand the general structural/institutional features of Canada’s federal system: health and social transfers, equalization, etc.
- c. Be able to employ concepts of welfare economics to analyze the rationale for and implications of Canada’s fiscal federal system (vertical and horizontal fiscal externalities, fiscal imbalances, etc).
- d. Understand the general structural/institutional features of Canada’s tax system (personal income tax, corporate income tax, consumption taxation).
- e. Be able to employ basic concepts of welfare economics to analyze Canada’s tax system in terms of efficiency and equity.
- f. Know and understand the basic stylized facts regarding income distribution in Canada and ways to measure it.
- g. Know and understand the various measures of poverty and economic theories (human capital, social identity) as to the causes of poverty.
- h. Know and understand the structural/institutional features of Canadian government programs to address inequality and poverty.
- i. Know and understand the rationale from the perspective of welfare economics for the public provision of health care, public education, and public pensions.
- j. Know the basic stylized facts regarding the structural/institutional features of Canada’s health care, public education, and pension system.

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

MIDTERM EXAM 1	Feb. 11	25%
MIDTERM EXAM 2	Mar 18	25%
FINAL EXAM	TBA	50%
		100%

The official grading system will be used. See <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html>.

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

If a student's letter grade on the final exam exceeds their midterm(s) letter grade, the weight of the midterm(s) is (are) transferred to the final exam at the discretion of the instructor. The student must have written the midterm(s) or provided supporting documentation for the absence(s) such as a medical note or statutory declaration.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a factor in the evaluation of student work. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>.

Any student work which remains undistributed after the last day of classes will be available to students through the instructor's office during the instructor's office hours.

The final examination will be comprehensive, scheduled by the Registrar, held in a classroom, and last 2 hours. If a student cannot write their final exam on the date assigned by the Registrar's Office, they need to apply for a deferred exam <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html>. Under no circumstance will this be accommodated by the Department.

Tests and exams WILL involve multiple choice questions.

Programmable calculators, cellphones, textbooks, course notes, and other electronic devices will not be allowed during the writing of tests or final examinations. Students are reminded that simply being able to access their cellphone during an exam is academic misconduct.

The first midterm will be a timed assessment will be available on D2L at the beginning of class on February 11th and will be available for 24 hours. When you access the assessment, you will have the length of the class [50 minutes] to complete and submit it. This assessment will consist of multiple choice, calculation, and essay style questions. If you experience an issue that affects your ability to complete the assessment, which can include (but is not limited to) issues with technology, caregiving responsibilities, or distractions within your test-taking environment, you will need to contact your instructor as soon as possible to arrange an alternate or (in the case of technical issues) extended time to write the assessment.

The second midterm will be held on March 18th in class.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED QUIZZES/TESTS/EXAMS under any circumstances, nor may the quizzes/tests/exams be written early. Students unable to write the quizzes/tests/exams because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the final examination; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned.

Reappraisal of Grades:

For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2
