Course Outline:

The intention of this course is to use economic principles, analysis, and tools, to examine and explain the industry of sports. Students will be expected to understand how basic economic models can be applied to various aspects of sports, and their operations. The focus of the class will be primarily micro-economic in nature.

This class is intended to be a blended interest course, where student interests aid in directing some of the material of the class. Class discussion and analysis is expected and time will be allotted during class for group/class participation.

Students are expected to complete outside readings for the class as assigned, and any material required will be provided either as a handout or on Blackboard.

The following topics (some additional ones may be added; some of these may be deleted) will be discussed in the course:

1. Review of important economic principles, theories, and tools
2. Professional Sports Leagues
 - General theory of leagues
 - Issues associated with operations
 - labour relations
 - costs, profits
 - Successes/failures
 - Suggestions
3. Demand and Sports Revenue
4. Subsidies and Economic Impact
 - Stadium Financing
 - Public benefits
 - Taxes
5. Competition Policy
6. Non-profit athletes/sports

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

Midterm	30%	July 22, 2009
Class	20%
Participation/Work
Final Exam	50%	Date set by Registrar's Office (Aug 17-19)

Tests and final exams are marked on a numerical (percentage) basis, then converted to letter grades. The course grade is then calculated using the weights indicated above. As a guide to determining standing, these letter grade equivalences will generally apply:

A+	96-100	B	74-76	C-	61-63
A	86-95	B-	71-73	D+	56-60
A-	81-85	C+	67-70	D	50-55
B+	77-80	C	64-66	F	0-49

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

Non-programmable calculators WILL NOT be allowed during the writing of tests or final examinations.

There will be a Registrar scheduled final examination, lasting 2 hours.

Tests and exams WILL involve multiple choice questions.
