Course Description:

This course introduces students to systematic economic analysis in managerial decision-making. The focus is on the application of practical ideas to business decisions, integrating global business issues and practices with conceptually rigorous economic analysis.

Course Learning Outcomes:

1. Familiarity with the types of industry-specific data that may be useful in managerial decision-making, including the ability to gather data and calculate meaningful descriptive statistics;
2. Develop the ability to creatively apply the tools of economic theory and data analysis in a practical manner to inform firm-level decisions;
3. Develop the ability to understand how historical factors, market institutions and regulation may impact firm-level decisions;
4. Develop the ability to identify and articulate the economic significance of current events and policy statements for firm-level decisions; and
5. Develop the ability to communicate clearly, with non-economists, and in non-technical language, complex ideas about how economic analysis can inform business decisions.

The official grading system will be used. See <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html>.

There is no final examination for this course.

Students must receive a passing grade on the final written term project and video presentation to pass the course. If a student's letter grade on the final project exceeds the midterm(s) letter grade, the weight of the midterm(s) will be transferred to the final project. The student must have written the midterm(s) or provided supporting documentation for the absence(s) such as a medical note or statutory declaration.

As per the Writing Across the Curriculum Statement in the Calendar, writing and grading thereof will be a substantive factor in the evaluation of all student work.

See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>.

The midterm exam(s)/quizzes will be an open-book take-home format. Students are permitted use of the textbook and course notes during the writing of the exams. Students are not permitted access to any other resources during the exams. The exams are designed and intended to be completed in 75 minutes. The exam(s) will be available on D2L. Students will download the exam from D2L, complete the exam, scan it, and submit using the Dropbox feature in D2L. All students will be accommodated to have three hours to complete the full exam process, at a time of the student's choosing, within an instructor-designated 24 hour period.

All course components will be accessed, submitted, and returned through D2L.

Tests and exams WILL NOT involve multiple choice questions, fill in the blanks, matching, or connecting dot-to-dot diagrams.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED QUIZZES/TESTS/EXAMS under any circumstances, nor may the quizzes/tests/exams be written early. Students unable to write the quizzes/tests/exams because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the written final project; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned.

Reappraisal of Grades and Intellectual Honesty:

For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-2.html>

For Reappraisal of Final Grade, see Calendar I.3

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act:

Personal information is collected in accordance with FOIP. Assignments can only be returned to the student and will be accessible only to authorized faculty and staff. For more information, see

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/access-information-privacy>

Copyright Legislation:

See the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/acceptable-use-material-protected-copyright-policy> Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Recording of Lectures:

Recording of lectures is prohibited, except for audio recordings authorized as an accommodation by SAS or an audio recording for individual private study and only with the written permission of the instructor. Any unauthorized electronic or mechanical recording of lectures, their transcription, copying, or distribution, constitutes academic misconduct. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-6.html>.
