Course Outline:

The objectives of this course are:

- To apply empirical and theoretical skills that you have acquired and developed from core curriculum courses in the Dept. of Economics
- To develop your research skills and written communication skills, continuing with the research initiated with EC611.55.
- Where possible (or if you are lucky enough), to produce original results that contribute to our understanding of economics

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

The final grade will be based on the elements and weights below:

Writing assignment	70%
Oral Presentation	30%
Total	100%

Tests and final exams are marked on a numerical (percentage) basis, and then converted to letter grades. The course grade is then calculated using the weights indicated above. As a guide to determining standing, the university letter grade equivalences will generally apply:
