Course Outline:

This course is the continuation of ECON 611.55. This part of the course cannot be taken independently. Based on the progress you made during the first part, the objective of this part is:

1. to obtain the results of your research, i.e., answers to your question,
2. to present your results at the oral presentation, and
3. to complete the final draft of your research paper.

Important Dates:

- July 11 (Fri): Preliminary results due
- July 25 (Fri): First draft (complete paper) due
- August 5,6 (Tue, Wed): Oral presentation
- August 15 (Fri): Final draft due

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details:

The final grade of this part of the course will be based on the final outcome of the project. As a guide to determining grade, the course instructors consider the following elements of the project.

Preliminary results	20 %
Oral presentation	40 %
Final paper	40 %

Notes:

- Students seeking reappraisal of a piece of graded term work (term paper, essay, etc.) should discuss their work with the Instructor within seven days of the work being returned to the class.
- It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 403-220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than seven (7) days after the start of this course.
