Office Hours:	by appointment	Winter 2021

Course Description:

Research Methods (I and II) will focus on developing students' skills in evaluating their own research and that of others. The course will focus on how to choose a research topic, how to develop an appropriate methodology, and how to evaluate the research contributions of others. As part of the course, students are expected to attend the departmental seminar series delivered via ZOOM in winter 2021.

Course Outcomes:

The goal of this course is to provide you with the tools necessary to undertake independent research, beyond the skills developed in your courses field specific courses. In the winter, our focus will be on written and oral communication of a research question and method. Of particular importance will be the following dates when we will be having lectures and workshops (subject to change): January 15th, February 12th, March 11th, and April 8rd.

Course Outline:

The course will be divided into two broad sections. In the first section we will focus on the written presentation of a research question and method; in the second section will focus on presenting your research question and method.

Prerequisites/corequisites:

Enrollment in the MA Economics program (course-based and thesis-based)

Required Textbook(s):

None. Readings will be posted on D2L.

Recommended Textbook(s):

None.

Books on Reserve:

None.

Desire2Learn:

This course will make use of the Desire2Learn (D2L) platform. Students who are registered in the course can log on at <http://d2l.ucalgary.ca> through their student centre. Please note that D2L features a class e-mail list that may be used to distribute course-related information. These e-mails go to your University of Calgary e-mail addresses only.

Grade Determination/Assessment:

There are no exams for this course. Students will be evaluated based on their completion of three seminar referee reports and two research reports.

For the seminar reports, students will write reports on three papers presented in the Wednesday and Friday seminars. These reports should evaluate the paper, the presentation, and provide a thoughtful analysis of the research contributions. The reports can be submitted to the instructor at any time during the fall term but all reports must be submitted by April 27th. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Students will prepare two presentations of their research. The first will be a written presentation of their research question, outlining the research, the method, and some of the relevant literature. These will be workshopped in the lectures. The second will be a presentation of their research (PowerPoint or other means). This will include a slide deck and a 15-minute presentation in class). The presentations will be organized at the start of the term; the written components will be due April 27th. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Seminar reports (3)	40%
Research communications (2)	60%
	100%

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details

Department of Economics Criteria for Letter Grades. Economics professors use the following criteria when assigning letter grades:

Grade	Grade Point Value	Description
A+	4.00	Outstanding
A	4.00	Excellent-superior performance, showing-comprehensive understanding of subject matter
A-	3.70	Very good performance
B+	3.30	Good performance
B	3.00	Satisfactory performance
B-	2.70	Minimum pass for students in the Faculty of Graduate Studies
C+	2.30	All grades below "B-" are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted toward Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements. Individual programs may require a higher passing grade.

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.
