Course Description:

This is the second part of the core PhD course in macroeconomics. The course is intended to introduce some selected macroeconomic issues, as well as to demonstrate how to use models and techniques to examine the issues. Both the issues and the models should be treated as important components of the course.

Course Outcomes:

The main purpose of this course is to prepare students to conduct research in macroeconomics.

Course Outline:

The course is organized into three parts.

1. Advanced dynamic optimization
2. Topics on
  - Equilibrium models of the labor market
  - Productivity and misallocation
  - New monetarist theory
3. Solving dynamic problems numerically
  - Programming basics
  - Numerical methods for solving dynamic equilibrium equations
  - Applications

Prerequisites/corequisites:

Advanced Macroeconomics Theory I (Econ709)

Required Textbook(s):

None

Recommended Textbook(s):

- Acemoglu, D. 2008. Introduction to Modern Economic Growth. Princeton.
  - Ljungqvist, L. and T.J. Sargent. 2004. Recursive Macroeconomic Theory. MIT
  - Pissarides, C. A. (2000). Equilibrium Unemployment Theory. Oxford University Press
- A reading list will be provided during the first week of lectures.

Books on Reserve:

None

Desire2Learn:

This course will make use of the Desire2Learn (D2L) platform. Students who are registered in the course can log on at <http://d2l.ucalgary.ca> through their student centre. Please note that D2L features a class e-mail list that may be used to distribute course-related information. These e-mails go to your University of Calgary e-mail addresses only.

Grade Determination/Assessment:

MIDTERM EXAM 1 (Feb 15)	20%
MIDTERM EXAM 2 (Mar 22)	20%
ASSIGNMENTS	20%
FINAL EXAMINATION	40%
	<hr/> 100%

Note: The first midterm exam is scheduled during the extended online period (Jan 31- Feb 18). The first midterm exam will be available on D2L at the beginning of class on Feb 15 at 2:00pm and will be available for 24 hours. When you access the assessment, you will have 2 hours to complete and submit it. This assessment will consist of short answer questions. If you experience an issue that affects your ability to complete the assessment, which can include (but is not limited to) issues with technology, caregiving responsibilities, or distractions within your test-taking environment, you will need to contact your instructor as soon as possible to arrange an alternate or (in the case of technical issues) extended time to write the assessment.

Grade Determination and Final Examination Details

Department of Economics Criteria for Letter Grades. Economics professors use the following criteria when assigning letter grades:

Grade	Grade Point Value	Description
A+	4.00	Outstanding
A	4.00	Excellent-superior performance, showing-comprehensive understanding of subject matter
A-	3.70	Very good performance
B+	3.30	Good performance
B	3.00	Satisfactory performance
B-	2.70	Minimum pass for students in the Faculty of Graduate Studies
C+	2.30	All grades below "B-" are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted toward Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements. Individual programs may require a higher passing grade.

Letter grades will be determined mainly based on students' academic performance (exam scores, assignment scores and term project scores). In general, students are expected to obtain an average of at least 60% for a B-. Students' efforts (such as attending lectures, finishing coursework on time, asking questions) as well as students' progress (such as significant improvement of academic performance from the beginning of the term to the end of the term) will also be considered and might be used to adjust the letter grade (usually for one grade difference only, e.g. from B- to B). If the average academic performance of the class is significantly lower than expected, the class average will also be considered and might be used for adjusting the letter grade for the entire class.

A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a student to pass the course as a whole.

There will be a department scheduled final examination, held in a classroom, lasting 2 hours. Non-programmable calculators WILL be allowed during the writing of tests or final examinations.

Tests and exams WILL NOT involve multiple choice questions.

Absence from a Test/Exam

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED QUIZZES under any circumstances, nor may the quizzes be written early. Students unable to write the quizzes because of documented illness, family emergency, religious observance, or university-sanctioned event will have the weight shifted to the final examination; otherwise a grade of zero will be assigned. If a student cannot write their final exam on the date assigned by the Department, they need to arrange for a deferred exam with the department.

Notes:

Students are responsible for all assigned material, e.g., supplementary material posted on D2L, regardless of whether or not the material was covered in class.

Reappraisal of Grades:

For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-2.html>

For Reappraisal of Final Grade, see Calendar I.3

Academic Misconduct:

Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior that compromises proper assessment of students' academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor's expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar.

Student committing academic misconduct during the final exam will not receive a passing grade for the course.

For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy, Procedure and Academic Integrity, please visit: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html>

Academic Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/accommodation-students-disabilities-procedure>

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act:

Personal information is collected in accordance with FOIP. Assignments can only be returned to the student and will be accessible only to authorized faculty and staff. For more information, see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/access-information-privacy>

Copyright Legislation:

See the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/acceptable-use-material-protected-copyright-policy> Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Recording of Lectures:

Recording of lectures is prohibited, except for audio recordings authorized as an accommodation by SAS or an audio recording for individual private study and only with the written permission of the instructor. Any unauthorized electronic or mechanical recording of lectures, their transcription, copying, or distribution, constitutes academic misconduct. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-6.html>.
