DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
COURSE OUTLINE

ENGLISH: ENGL 201 L03

Fall 2015

COURSE TITLE: Archetypes and Others: The Superhuman in Literature
M/W/F 10:00-10:50 SA147

Instructor: Tom Miller
Office: SS1021
Phone: 210-6551
E-mail: millerte@ucalgary.ca
Office hours: Wednesday, 11am – 12pm

Course description: In this course we will examine renditions of the superhuman, both celebrated and monstrous, from ancient times to the present, considering these characters as representative of the archetypes with which we construct our myths, the others by which we define ourselves, and the metaphors with which we construct reality. We will consider the superhuman from a number of critical perspectives, including the historical, the archetypal, and the feminist. Students will be expected to engage critically with all the varied texts, with the goal of developing skills in critical reading and effective, logical writing, employing terminology and techniques learned in the lectures to a variety of written assignments.

Texts and readings:

(All course materials are available in the university bookstore)

Sir Gawain and the Green Knight

The Tempest – William Shakespeare, OUP Canadian edition

Frankenstein – Mary Shelley, Dover Publications

The Metamorphosis – Franz Kafka, Dover Publications

The Adventures of Kavalier and Clay – Michael Chabon, Random House reprint

All-Star Superman – Grant Morrison and Frank Quitely, DC Comics

[Online – various myths, short theoretical readings, selections from Wallace Stevens’ “Notes Toward a Supreme Fiction”]

Assignments and Evaluation:

6 reading quizzes (Sir Gawain, The Tempest, Frankenstein, The Metamorphosis, Kavalier and Clay, All-Star Superman) x 2% each = 10%, lowest score will be dropped at end of term.

Short writing assignment - Find a famous pair of hero(ine) and villain (i.e., Superman and Lex Luthor, Harry Potter and Lord Voldemort) – what qualities do these characters possess that complement each other, what qualities that oppose each other? What is it about their relationship that has made them a successful pairing? Consider why it is important for a literary hero to have a foil. (250-300 words, proper MLA formatting of source)

- due in class September 25th. Value – 10%

Short Writing assignment – find a treatment of the superhuman online (i.e., a meme featuring Batman, a webcomic commenting on the superhero) (I will provide examples.) Write a critical assessment of the piece, what it is celebrating/parodying/critiquing about this cultural figure. Link this to one of the texts we have studied so far. (250 – 300 words, proper MLA formatting of sources)

- due in class October 23rd. Value – 10%

Proposal for final essay – outlining thesis statement, texts addressed, major points of essay, outside sources considered. A list of suggested topics will be provided. Students who wish to create their own topic must have it approved by the instructor 2 weeks before the proposal is due. (200 words, proper MLA formatting of bibliography)

- due in class November 9th. Value – 15%

Final Essay – critical examination of one text on the course through the lens of one critical article presented in the course. Must also include 2 outside sources. (1000-1200 words)

- due in class November 30th. Value – 25%

Registrar scheduled Final Exam – short answer and short essay.

- date TBD (Exam period Dec.11-22 - <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-schedule.html>). Value – 30%

TOTAL – 100%

NOTE: Students must be available for examinations up to the last day of the examination period (December 11 – 22, 2015)

Students must hand in all assignments (except quizzes) and sit the final exam in order to qualify for a passing grade in the course. Assignments can be submitted either electronically or hard copy. Electronic submissions must be sent before the beginning of class on due dates.

Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized with the loss of a third of a grade (an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue. No assignments will be accepted one week past the assignment deadline without the prior consent of the instructor.

Please make every effort to take assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

90 + %	A+	4.0
85 – 89 %	A	4.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7

67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
64 – 66 %	C	2.0
60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
50 – 54 %	D	1.0
0 – 49 %	F	0

The University of Calgary’s four-point Undergraduate Grading System, as described in the Calendar (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-2.html>), will be used in this course.

A+/A (4.0); A- (3.7); B+ (3.3); B (3.0); B- (2.7); C+ (2.3); C (2.0); C- (1.7); D+ (1.3); D (1.0); F (0)

Please note that, according to the University Calendar (F.1), instructors may use their discretion when rounding upwards or downwards when the average of term work and exams is between two letter grades.

When calculating end of term grades, the lowest reading quiz mark will be dropped in order to calculate the 10% of the grade the quizzes constitute.

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the four-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Please refer to the following information and make sure you are familiar with the statement below on plagiarism.

Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys."

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>) "The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, ..., to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community". The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a "positive and productive learning and working environment." This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that "seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff". Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
