ENGLISH 201.02 Approaches to Literature

FALL 2016

COURSE TITLE: Not Just Your Childhood Fairy Tales!: The Literary Fairy Tale

Class Time: MWF 09:00-09:50 am Location: ST 126

Instructor: Natalie Robinson

Office: SS 1021 (10th Floor of Social Sciences Bldg.)

Phone: 403-210-6551

E-mail: njrobins@ucalgary.ca

Office hours: 10:00-11:00 am Wednesday or by appointment.

Course description: In this course, we will explore the changing nature of fairy tale narratives through the study of 20th and 21st century variations on well-known tales from the European tradition of literary fairy tales. We will examine how writers have reimagined fairy tales to respond to shifting cultural and ideological conditions. Students will read variants of Little Red Riding Hood, Sleeping Beauty, Cinderella, and Beauty and the Beast by Angela Carter, Margaret Atwood, Wilfred Owen, Francesca Lia Block, Gabriel Garcia Marquez, Emma Donoghue, and Marissa Meyer with attention to both form and content. Some of the tales we will study in this course are explicitly written for an adult audience. We will discuss the use of fairy tale narratives in both children's literature and adult texts while examining the roles of the teller and the audience in the context of social, historical, material, and gendered revisions of folk and fairy tales.

This course will emphasize fundamental skills: instruction on university-level essay writing; close reading of literary texts; and an introduction to key critical and technical concepts in the study of literature.

Texts and readings: The following texts are required reading for this course:

Folk and Fairy Tales 4th ed. (2008). Edited by Martin Hallett and Barbara Karasek.

Broadview Press. (Includes Critical Articles and Access to Additional Online Readings)

Kissing the Witch: Old Tales in New Skins (1997) by Emma Donoghue

Cinder (2012) (Book One of The Lunar Chronicles Series) by Marissa Meyer

Short Stories Available Online: Links will be provided by instructor via email and/or D2L.

"The Little Governess" (1915) by Katherine Mansfield

"The Bloody Chamber" (1979) by Angela Carter

"Bluebeard's Egg" (1983) by Margaret Atwood

"The Glass Bottle Trick" (2001) by Nalo Hopkinson

Recommended Text: MLA Handbook -8th Edition (2016)

Assignments and Evaluation:

20% In-class Written Reading Responses (6 in total and best 5 used in calculation of grade). Reading Responses will be posted on reading schedule, but dates are subject to change. Students are expected to come to each class having read all assigned material.

15% Short Writing Assignment- Review of Critical Article in Folk and Fairy Tales anthology (500-750 words)

15% Thesis Statement, Proposal, and Annotated Bibliography for Final Research Paper (250 words)

25% Final Research Paper (1500 words)

25% Registrar Scheduled Final Exam

Please note:

- Students must be available for examinations up to the last day of the examination period. Examination period for Fall 2016 is December 12 to 22, 2016.
- Students must complete ALL assignments in order to receive a passing grade on the course.
- Printed copies of all assignments must be handed to the instructor in class on the due date. No electronic submissions will be accepted.
- Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized with the loss of a third of a grade (an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue. No assignments will be accepted one week past the assignment deadline without the prior consent of the instructor.

Please make every effort to take assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

In this course, all essays, exams, and presentations will be marked on the University of Calgary's four-point Grading System, as described in the Calendar:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-2.html>.

A+/A (4.0); A- (3.7); B+ (3.3); B (3.0); B- (2.7); C+ (2.3); C (2.0); C- (1.7); D+ (1.3); D (1.0); F (0)

All quizzes will receive a numerical grade, to be converted using the following scale:

90 + %	A+	4.0
85 – 89 %	A	4.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7
67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
64 – 66 %	C	2.0
60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
55 – 59 %	D+	1.3

50 – 54 %	D	1.0
0 – 49 %	F	0

Please note that, according to the University Calendar (F.1), instructors may use their discretion when rounding upwards or downwards when the average of term work and exams is between two letter grades.

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the 4-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

Classroom Policy on Electronic Devices: Use of computers, tablets, and cellular phones are not permitted during class time without official academic accommodation documentation.

Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Please refer to the following information and make sure you are familiar with the statement below on plagiarism.

Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys."

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>) "The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, ..., to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community". The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a "positive and productive learning and working environment." This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that "seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff". Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
