Course description:

ENGL 353 DRAMA: READING AND ANALYSIS H (3-0)

A study of dramatic literature in English from a wide range of historical periods, social contexts, and national literatures. Through textual analysis and close reading, this course acquaints students with the characteristic techniques of dramaturgy and basic theatric terminology, giving detailed attention to the formal conventions of literature written to be performed on stage.

Antirequisite: Credit for ENGL 353 and 356 will not be allowed.

Notes: This course cannot be used by Majors or Honors students to fulfill historical breadth requirements.

Course Delivery:

This course will take place online via Desire2Learn (D2L) and Zoom. To best succeed in the course, students are encouraged to participate in the asynchronous learning tasks using the D2L learning environment and synchronous Zoom sessions.

When unable to participate live due to the time difference or unforeseen circumstances, it is each student's responsibility to catch up on any missed material by asking colleagues to share notes, by reviewing the class outline set out by the instructor prior to each class, and by keeping up with the readings as outlined in the Course Schedule. The Instructor will not provide notes for missed lectures, and lectures are not usually recorded.

There will be 12 synchronous Zoom sessions throughout the term on Mondays from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. on the following dates: Jan 11, Jan 18, Jan 25, Feb 1, Feb 8, Feb 22, Mar 1, Mar 8, Mar 15, Mar 22, Mar 29 and Apr 12.

There are no make-ups for any of the assignments in this course, therefore make note of all the due dates and the classes to ensure that you are complying with the deadlines.

The remaining classes scheduled for Wednesdays from 11-12:15 during the term will be asynchronous, and students will be given guidance as to how to use that offline time effectively during the Monday synchronous classes.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify theatrical conventions, styles and traditions, and their evolution with a strong focus on 19th and 20th century playwrights.
2. Use a range of research skills to investigate theatre practices, reviews, history, and drama as an activist endeavor.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of iconic playwrights, their work, and how adaptations make them relevant.
4. Critically read, analyze and engage with dramatic texts and scholarly works that respond to the issues presented in the plays.
5. View and review current productions, and write academically on various aspects of theatre (eg. text, casting, design, lighting, directing and acting) in a knowledgeable manner.

LEARNING RESOURCES:

Required textbook: The Broadview Anthology of Drama: Plays from the Western Theatre. Volume II: The Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries. Edited by Jennifer Wise and Craig S. Walker (2003).

Required readings: Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare. Available via <https://shakespeare.folger.edu/shakespeares-works/twelfth-night/>

The Course Schedule will also list a number of required supplementary readings and viewings (plays and articles) that can be accessed through the University of Calgary library. Links and/or information on how to access these resources will be provided through D2L.

LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

There is a D2L site for this course which will contain the Course Outline, Course Schedule, Assignment Instructions, Required Readings and other relevant class resources and materials (see d2L.ucalgary.ca).

In order to successfully engage in their learning experiences at the University of Calgary, students taking online, remote and blended courses are required to have reliable access to the following technology:

- A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates;
- A current and updated web browser;
- Webcam (built-in or external);
- Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone;
- Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled;
- Broadband internet connection.

Assignments and Evaluation:

Critical Response to a Journal Article (15%) due Feb. 8

You will be assigned a scholarly article from a journal on one of the plays in the course and asked to submit a 750-word commentary on the merits of the article's thesis based on your own reading of the play and the in-class lectures. More detailed instructions will be given on the first week of class.

Critical Response to plays reviewed in the first half of this course (20%) due Feb. 22

You will be asked write a critical response plays and material studied to date showing your knowledge and understanding of the theory and practice. No secondary sources are allowed; you are expected to write your essay using only the class textbook and class notes as reference.

Critical Response Performance History (15%) due March 8

You will be asked to write a 750-word paper on one of the plays assigned by the instructor, and research its performance history including critical reviews and audience reception. You will also be asked to speak to the relevance of the play's themes in contemporary theatre. Detailed instructions will be available on D2L in the first few weeks of class.

Performance Review (20%) due March 31

You will be asked to review a full-length play available through the Theatre in Video and/or National Theatre in Video program in the University of Calgary's library database. After viewing the play, you will write a 1000-word paper addressing some of the questions in the instructions regarding casting, scene design, lighting, directing and acting linking your commentary with some of the theoretical components of the course. More detailed instructions will be given in the first few weeks of class, and will be available on D2L.

Final Research Essay (30%) due April 14

You will be asked to submit a 2,000-word argumentative academic research paper (including the Works Cited or Bibliography list) researching a specific topic using at least four secondary sources in addition to the primary sources (the texts reviewed in class). More detailed instructions will be given a few weeks into the course and will be available on D2L.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS:

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to be fully present and engaged in class activities and discussions in a respectful manner that contributes to everyone's understanding and engagement with the course material.

If students miss a synchronous session, it is their responsibility to each out to colleagues – not to the Instructor – for missed class notes, to review the reading assigned by referring to the Course Schedule, and to ensure they are up to date on any instructions given regarding class assignments. There is no recording of class lectures, therefore students are encouraged to attend the synchronous sessions listed above.

Additional Regulations:

- There is NO Registrar Scheduled Final Exam for this course.
- There are NO make-ups for assignments for this course. If students miss submitting an assignment, they will receive a grade of "0" on that assignment.
- ALL FIVE writing assignments are mandatory. If students miss submitting any of these five assignments, they are ineligible to pass the course.
- Students must submit all assignments in the appropriate D2L dropbox by 11:30 p.m. on the due dates listed in the Course Schedule. No assignments will be accepted via email or any other means.
- Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized with the loss of a third of a grade (an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue. No assignments will be accepted one week past the assignment deadline without the prior consent of the instructor if extenuating circumstances need to be taken into account.

- No extensions will be given on Assignments after the due date. If there are extenuating circumstances, students must request an extension before the assignment due date, and a short extension will be given at the instructor's discretion.
- If you have any questions throughout the course, communicate via email in a respectful, professional, and timely manner. I will endeavor to respond to your emails within 24 hours, unless the inquiry has been sent on a weekend, holiday, or an evening. Use only your @ucalgary email for any communication.

CONDUCT

Students, employees, and academic staff are also expected to demonstrate behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. As members of the University community, students, employees, and academic staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary Calendar, the Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures, which can be found at:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

USE OF INTERNET AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICES IN CLASS

The use of laptop and mobile devices is acceptable when used in a manner appropriate to the course and classroom activities. Please refrain from accessing websites and resources that may be distracting to you or for other learners during class time. Students are responsible for being aware of the University's Internet and email use policy, which can be found at

<https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/acceptable-use-electronic-resources-and-information-policy>

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS

Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a "live" video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community.

To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor's permission.

The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g. Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: <https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/>.

If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, it is your responsibility to catch up on the missed material through contacting your peers or reviewing the material on D2L. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.).

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

GRADING SYSTEM

In this course, all assignments and exams will be graded based on the following University of Calgary standardized percentage conversion:

90 + %	A+	4.0	67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
85 – 89 %	A	4.0	64 – 66 %	C	2.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7	60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3	55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0	50 – 54 %	D	1.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7	0 – 49 %	F	0

- There is no D- grade.
- I will be rounding up the final grade only. For example, if at the end of the course, you receive a 76.5 which would be a B, it will be rounded up to 77, so that your final grade will be a B+.

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the four-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality. Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university.

“Plagiarism” occurs when a Student presents the ideas, expression of ideas or work of another individual as the Student’s own. Work may include algorithms, code, composition, data, methods, design, formulae, images, indigenous oral teachings, art and ceremonies, organization of ideas, and scientific and mathematical concepts.

<http://arts.ucalgary.ca/undergraduate> which has detailed information on common academic concerns.

RESEARCH ETHICS (if applicable)

If a student is interested in undertaking an assignment that will involve collecting information from members of the public, they should speak with the course instructor and consult the CFREB Ethics (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/research/researchers/ethics-compliance/cfreb>) before beginning the assignment.

INSTRUCTOR'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright-policy.pdf>) and requirements of the copyright act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>.

MEDIA RECORDING (if applicable)

Please refer to the following statement on media recording of students:

https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Media-Recording-in-Learning-Environments-OSP_FINAL.pdf

Media recording for lesson capture

The instructor may use media recordings to capture the delivery of a lecture. These recordings are intended to be used for lecture capture only and will not be used for any other purpose. Although the recording device will be fixed on the Instructor, in the event that incidental student participation is recorded, the instructor will ensure that any identifiable content (video or audio) is masked, or will seek consent to include the identifiable student content to making the content available on University approved platforms.

Media recording for self-assessment of teaching practices

The instructor may use media recordings as a tool for self-assessment of their teaching practices. Although the recording device will be fixed on the instructor, it is possible that student participation in the course may be inadvertently captured. These recordings will be used for instructor self-assessment only and will not be used for any other purpose.

Media recording for the assessment of student learning

The instructor may use media recordings as part of the assessment of students. This may include but is not limited to classroom discussions, presentations, clinical practice, or skills testing that occur during the course. These recordings will be used for student assessment purposes only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE POLICY

The University recognizes that all members of the University Community should be able to learn, work, teach and live in an environment where they are free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. The University of Calgary's sexual violence policy guides us in how we respond to incidents of sexual violence, including supports available to those who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence, or those who are alleged to have committed sexual violence. It provides clear response procedures and timelines, defines complex concepts, and addresses incidents that occur off-campus in certain circumstances. Please see the policy available at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/sexual-violence-policy.pdf>

Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI):

"At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses (www.ucalgary.ca/usri). Your responses make a difference – please participate in USRI Surveys."

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:
 - a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
 - b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
 - c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,

- d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. Instructors may request that evidence in the form of documentation be provided. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test. For information on possible forms of documentation, including statutory declarations, please see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html>.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar

“The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, ..., to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community”. The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a “positive and productive learning and working environment.” This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that “seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff”. Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
