FALL 2012

COURSE TITLE: Topic in Literature and Society: Literature and Justice

Instructor: Dr. Clara A.B. Joseph

Office: SS1026

Phone: 403-220-4232

E-mail: cjoseph@ucalgary.ca

Office hours: Monday, 3:00pm to 4:00pm

Course description: This course examines selected literary and critical works in and about multiple genres and regions. The program of study will focus on content and form, their inalienability and purpose for a mission of justice in this world. Some of the general questions that the course will pose are: What is the significance of literary representation? Should literature have a grand purpose? The course will emphasize fundamental skills: how to read a text accurately and critically; how to write logically, clearly, and correctly; how to listen and speak in a formal discussion.

Assignments and Evaluation:

Essay Proposal (750 words) and bibliography 25%

Essay (3000 words) 35%

Class Participation (10%) *

Exam (30%) – Take Home

* Class Participation 10% -- While marks will be deducted for any distractive behavior in class, marks will be awarded for the following:

1. Evidence of responsible reading of assigned readings
2. Regular and quality submission of in-class assignments.
3. Active and quality participation in discussions and group activities.
4. Successful participation in random quizzes and debates based on lecture material and the readings.
5. Initiative in bringing to the attention of the class relevant popular and academic information.
6. Ability to interact with the class in a professional and enthusiastic manner.

NOTE: All assignments must be completed in order to receive a passing grade on the course.

There will be no Registrar Scheduled Exam in this course.

Late assignment policy: Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized (with the loss of a third of a grade (an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue.

Proposal and essay: Assignments must be emailed as a Word document to the instructor at cjoseph@ucalgary.ca before midnight of the due date. The file name must be according to the following format: for example, LastnameFirstname_387Proposal_Nov7-2012. Students must always copy themselves on any assignment emailed to the instructor, and save the item until final results are received from the registrar's office. If in doubt of the procedure, it is the responsibility of the student to check with the instructor well in advance. DO NOT SEND THE ASSIGNMENT TO BLACKBOARD

*Please make every effort to take assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

The following grading system is used in this course:

90 - 100% A+
85 - 89% A
80 - 84% A-
77 - 79% B+
73 - 76% B
70 - 72% B-

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>)

“The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, . . . , to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community”. The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a “positive and productive learning and working environment.” This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that “seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff”. Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
