Prerequisite(s): English 302 and one of 240 or 340.

Texts and readings:

Chaucer, Geoffrey. The Canterbury Tales, ed. Robert Boenig and Andrew Taylor. 2nd ed. Peterborough ON: Broadview, 2012.

Amtower, Laurel, and Jacqueline Vanhoutte. A Companion to Chaucer and his Contemporaries: Texts and Contexts. Peterborough ON: Broadview, 2009.

Assignments and Evaluation:

Middle English Test 25%

Given about the fifth week of term, this half hour test will require you to translate from Chaucer's Middle English into modern English. Students who score C- or below will be offered tutoring and an opportunity for a rewrite.

Group presentation 25%

Each group will present for 35 to 40 minutes on one pilgrim and his or her Tale. Your script and/or Powerpoint (Prezi etc.) presentation must be submitted to the instructor on the day of the oral presentation. More information will be provided in class.

Final essay 25%

A final essay of approximately 2500 words will be due April 6. Topics will be made available the class after the Middle English test, and will include the possibility of building on your group presentation.

Final examination 25%

A closed book final examination scheduled by the Registrar during the Winter Session examination period (April 15 – 26), will test your knowledge of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, his society, his historical context, and his culture.

Assignments (i.e. essays) submitted after the deadline will be penalized with the loss of a third of a grade (e.g. from an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue. No assignments will be accepted one week past the assignment deadline without the prior consent of the instructor. Essays may be submitted in electronic form using the D2L dropbox provided. Hard copy is also accepted

Please make every effort to take hard copy assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

Letter grades only will be used in this course. Final grades will be calculated using the University's four point GPA scale. The following table gives the English Department's standard percentage conversions, but percentage grades will not be given or used for calculation.

90 + %	A+	4.0
85 – 89 %	A	4.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7
67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
64 – 66 %	C	2.0
60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
50 – 54 %	D	1.0
0 – 49 %	F	0

Please note that, according to the University Calendar (F.1), instructors may use their discretion when rounding upwards or downwards when the average of term work and exams is between two letter grades.

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the four-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

Students may use laptops, smart phones, etc., during class exclusively for class-related activities, such as looking up facts relevant to a discussion. Use of any electronic device during the Middle English Test or the Final Examination will be considered to be prima facie evidence of academic misconduct.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
