E-mail: mckennej@ucalgary.ca

Office hours: Tuesdays (1-2), or by appointment

Course Description:

---

This course is a survey in early eighteenth-century literature from 1700-1740. Students will read a variety of representative texts in poetry, drama, and prose that highlight some of the major period developments in genre and form. Students completing this course should find themselves with a deeper understanding of the historical importance of the literary period, particularly as it relates to the development of the novel; improved skills in reading and analyzing poetry; a basic foundation in physical bibliography; and a keener sense of the sources and techniques of satire.

Texts and readings:

- ❖ Susanna Centlivre, A Bold Stroke for a Wife, Broadview
  - ❖ Daniel Defoe, Robinson Crusoe, Oxford World Classics
  - ❖ Eliza Haywood, Fantomina, Web
(<http://andromeda.rutgers.edu/~jlynch/Texts/fantomina.html>)
  - ❖ Alexander Pope, Selected Poetry, Oxford World Classics
  - ❖ Samuel Richardson, Pamela, Oxford World Classics
  - ❖ Jonathan Swift, Gulliver's Travels, Oxford World Classics

Assignments and Evaluation:

- ❖ Satire Project (Writing Assignment): 200 points
  - ❖ ECCO/Special Collections Project (Writing Assignment): 200 points
  - ❖ Versification Test: 100 points
  - ❖ Presentation/Discussion Facilitation: 200
  - ❖ Participation: 50 points
  - ❖ Take-Home Final Exam: 250 points

There is no registrar-scheduled exam in this course.

☞ Please note that the dates of tests and presentations are not negotiable. You are expected to be present except in cases of documented personal emergency or crisis.

Participation Mark:

---

The participation mark for this course will be based on how thoughtfully and consistently students have participated in class discussion and exercises. Regular attendance and keeping up with required reading are fundamental aspects of participation. Attendance alone does not guarantee full participation marks.

Qualifying for a Passing Grade:

Please note: In order to qualify for a passing mark in the course, you must submit all writing assignments, including the take-home final, complete your presentation, and sit the versification test.

Submission of Assignments:

All work (written and otherwise) is due in hard copy at the START of the lecture on the assignment due date. If you cannot be in class, please make arrangements to hand in your assignment early or have a classmate hand in it for you. Please note that electronic submissions will not be accepted, even as proof of completion.

Alternately, you may take your assignments to SS1152 and place it in the drop-box. Your assignment will then be date-stamped and placed in your instructor's mailbox. Please keep a copy of your assignment in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

No extensions will be granted for course work except in cases of illness or severe personal distress (appropriate documentation required). Late assignments will be penalized 1/3 of a letter grade for each business day late. No assignments will be accepted three business days past the due date. Computer or printer malfunctions are not exceptions to the submission policy, so please plan accordingly.

Grading system:

The following grading system is used in this course:

910 – 1000 points	A+
850 – 909 points	A
800 – 849 points	A-
770 – 799 points	B+
730 – 769 points	B
700 – 729 points	B-
670 – 699 points	C+
630 – 669 points	C
600 – 629 points	C-
570 – 599 points	D+
500 – 569 points	D
000 – 499 points	F

Under the point system, individual assignments are already weighted according to their contributing value towards your final mark. If you would like to get a sense of what letter grade you received on any particular assignment, you can divide the total number of points received by the total number of possible points to get a percentage that corresponds to the chart above (after adding a decimal point after the tens' place).

Reaching Me:

I am best reached by email, but please note that while I make every effort to respond to all emails within 48 hours, I do not respond to emails in the evening or on the weekend. I also cannot guarantee that you will receive an email within 48 hours of assignment due dates. Students should remember, also, that email is not a substitute for attending class or using regular office hours. Missed assignments will not be sent over email, nor should email be used to ask questions otherwise answered in class or on the course outline. Students are responsible for gathering their own notes on missed classes. I will not conduct tutorials by email.

Plagiarism:

I am compelled by university regulations to prosecute all cases of suspected plagiarism. Please read the attached note on plagiarism and see me if you have any questions about university policies on academic misconduct or how to avoid intellectual theft in your own writing. Ignorance of the rules of documentation is not an adequate defense against charges of academic misconduct.

Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Please refer to the following information and make sure you are familiar with the statement below on plagiarism. <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2-1.html>

Scribe and Muse Club for English Students:

The Scribe and Muse Reading and Writing Club (SMRWC) fosters and champions reading and writing through community service, leadership, and engagement. We strive to enhance the academic and social experience of undergraduate students by promoting academic excellence and interaction between students, faculty, and the community, through social, cultural, and academic events. <http://english.ucalgary.ca/content/scribe-and-muse-reading-and-writing-club>

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not.

Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>) "The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, ..., to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community". The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a "positive and productive learning and working environment." This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that "seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff". Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
