COURSE OUTLINE

ENGLISH 515.06-01 Postcolonial Studies - The Major Thinkers (Fall 2015)

Tuesdays and Thursdays 3:30pm to 4:45pm in SS1153

Instructor: Dr. Clara A.B. Joseph

Office: SS1026

Phone: (403)220-4232

E-mail: cjoseph@ucalgary.ca

Office hours: Wednesday 2pm to 2:30pm and Thursday 4:45 to 5:15pm or by appointment

Course description:

Major thinkers – know them by what they say. Is beauty linked to truth? Is there method to this madness of racism? Was Nazism colonialism? What is the relevance of literary rhetoric in the face of oppression? What is the significance of reason in literary studies? Gandhi, Levinas, King, Roy, Adiga, and others provide valuable responses to questions that have become the core of important research in the Humanities. Learn to critique literary and theoretical texts. Develop a research project.

Texts and readings:

Adiga, Aravind. White Tiger.

Graff, Gerald and Cathy Birkenstein. They Say/I Say: The Moves That Matter in Academic Writing. Third Edition. New York: W W Norton & Co Inc, 2014.

Ashcroft, Bill et. al. Postcolonial Studies: The Key Concepts.

Course pack includes theoretical essays by Cesaire, Baranowski, Derman-Sparks and Brunson Phillips, Gandhi, King, Kreeft, Roy, and Stiglitz, and a short story by Woolf.

Assignments and Evaluation:

Proposal (350 words) and annotated bibliography (25%)

Essay: 3000 words (40%)

Presentation – (25%)

Class Participation (10%)

Students might have the opportunity to work in teams on certain assignments.

Participation marks awarded for the following:

1. Evidence of responsible reading of assigned readings
2. Taking intelligible notes during lectures and discussions
3. Regular and quality submission of in-class assignments.
4. Active and quality participation in discussions and activities whether in-class or online (online participation can also be used to make up for any absences).
5. Successful participation in random write-ups, quizzes, and debates based on lecture material and the readings.
6. Initiative in bringing to the attention of the class relevant popular and academic information.

7. Ability to interact with the class in a professional and enthusiastic manner.

Participation marks deducted for repeated distractive behavior!

NOTE:

All assignments must be completed in order to receive a passing grade on the course.

There will be no Registrar Scheduled Exam in this course.

Late assignment policy: Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized (with the loss of a third of a grade (an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue.

Assignments must be emailed as a Word document by the due date to the instructor at cjoseph@ucalgary.ca. The file name must be according to the following format: for example, LastnameFirstname_ENGL515Proposal_Oct16-2015.

Students must copy (cc) themselves on any assignment emailed to the instructor, and save the item until final results are received from the registrar's office.

In case of any graded teamwork, all members of a team will receive the same grade.

If in doubt of these procedures, it is the responsibility of the student to check with the instructor in advance of the due date.

DO NOT SEND THE ASSIGNMENT TO OR VIA D2L. DO NOT SUBMIT THE ASSIGNMENT IN HARDCOPY EITHER TO THE INSTRUCTOR OR THE DEPARTMENT OFFICE.

Grading system:

90 + %	A+	4.0
85 – 89 %	A	4.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7
67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
64 – 66 %	C	2.0
60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
50 – 54 %	D	1.0
0 – 49 %	F	0

Please note that, according to the University Calendar (F.1), instructors may use their discretion when rounding upwards or downwards when the average of term work and exams is between two letter grades.

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the 4-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Please refer to the following information and make sure you are familiar with the statement below on plagiarism.

Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI):

"At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses (www.ucalgary.ca/usri). Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys."

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>) "The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, ..., to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community". The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a "positive and productive learning and working environment." This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that "seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff". Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
