

FACULTY OF ARTS
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

ENGLISH 517.90-05

FALL 2012

COURSE TITLE: Theory: Poststructuralism & Postcolonialism

Instructor: Dr. Clara A.B. Joseph

Office: SS1026

Phone: 403-220-4232

E-mail: cjoseph@ucalgary.ca

Office hours: Monday, 4:00 to 5:00pm

Prerequisite(s): One full-course equivalent in English at the 400 level, or consent of the Department.

Assignments and Evaluation:

One Group Seminar Presentation 20% -- Group seminar presentation on literary/cultural issues and theories from the reading list to be proposed in consultation with the instructor. The 60 minute oral presentation should be followed within a week by a written component (1000 words) including topic, thesis, outline ONLY of the presentation, and the presenters' response to feedback; in addition there should be a bibliography. All members of a group will receive the same grade.

Leading One Seminar Discussion 10% -- once during the term, each student is required to facilitate the day's readings.

One Essay Proposal (750 words) 20% -- topic to be determined in consultation with the instructor.

One Essay (3000 words) 40% -- A theoretical essay based on the above proposal. Evaluation of this essay extends to the student's in-class presentation of the essay on the last day of class.

Participation 10%: Students are required to come prepared with questions and comments on the day's readings. Students will be rated also for their ability to interact with the class in a professional and enthusiastic manner.

NOTE:

All assignments must be completed in order to receive a passing grade on the course.

There will be no Registrar Scheduled Exam in this course.

Late assignment policy: Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized (with the loss of a third of a grade (an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue.

Proposal and essay: Assignments must be emailed as a Word document to the instructor at cjoseph@ucalgary.ca before midnight of the due date. The file name must be according to the following format: for example, LastnameFirstname_607Proposal_April1-2012. Students must always copy themselves on any assignment emailed to the instructor, and save the item until final results are received from the registrar's office. If in doubt of the procedure, it is the responsibility of the student to check with the instructor well in advance. DO NOT SEND THE ASSIGNMENT TO BLACKBOARD

*Please make every effort to take assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

The following grading system is used in this course:

90 - 100% A+
85 - 89% A
80 - 84% A-
77 - 79% B+
73 - 76% B
70 - 72% B-
67 - 69% C+
63 - 66% C
60 - 62% C-
57 - 59% D+
50 - 56% D
0 - 49% F

Actual numerical grades obtained, not their letter grade or percentage equivalent, will be used in calculating the final grade. Letter grades for assignments will be converted into numerical values using the scale above (at the instructor's discretion) in order to calculate the final course grade.

Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Please refer to the following information and make sure you are familiar with the statement below on plagiarism.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>)

“The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, . . . , to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community”. The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a “positive and productive learning and working environment.” This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that “seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff”. Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
