Course description:

The writings of Robert Kroetsch altogether comprise an astonishing achievement. In his life, he authored thirteen collections of poetry, nine novels, dozens of essays, several book-length interviews, and multiple theoretical excursions so influential that they have been quoted more than virtually any other in Canada. His body of work alone declares his importance, but his presence within Canadian Literature is peripheral, although he is a writer much quoted and frequently discussed. Kroetsch models the writer as intellectual presence within 20th century Canadian literature, but asks questions that continue to resonate for our cultural present, especially in 20th century Alberta. Further, his poetry, fiction, criticism and non-fiction offer rich ground for theoretical and methodological scrutiny.

This course will study the work of this author through the lens of place and its resonance, heroclitic origins as key to Robert Kroetsch's process and literary production, articulating a fundamental homesickness that raises questions for the nation as well as western Canadian literature. "How does one write from a vanishing west?" "How do we practice a uniquely Canadian creativity?" "How do we live our fiction?" "How far is it to the world?" This course will seek to develop an innovative readerly map that charts place and space in relation to his completed works.

While we will not in a semester-long course be able to study ALL his publications, students are encouraged to read Kroetsch's oeuvre before the class begins. Our critical analysis will focus on the collected poems, the literary essays, and six of the novels. As well, the class will be introduced to Kroetsch's archival materials, which are held in Special Collections in the TFDL.

Key research questions for this course include: historical writing within Canada; the regional declension of Canadian literature; creative explorations into aspects of a national or local "character"; the complications of gendered reading; spatial and historical peregrinations; creative and critical cross-fertilization; the friction between the rural tradition and the urban present; the nature of western Canadian writing; the writer's papers as archival site; writing's engagement with multiple genres; the challenges of evaluating a writer's "completed" work. This course is a wonderful opportunity to explore one writer's development and achievement.

Projected Outcomes and Expertise for Students:

Historical context of 20th Century Canadian Literature and criticism
Expertise in Regional Literature in Canada
Expertise in Western Canadian literary issues
Expertise in postmodern theory

Texts and readings:

Novels

- **The Words of My Roaring* (1966)
- **The Studhorse Man* (1969)
- **Badlands* (1975)
- **What the Crow Said* (1978)
- **Alibi* (1983)
- **The Man from the Creeks* (1998)

Poetry

- **Completed Field Notes: The Long Poems of Robert Kroetsch* (1989)
- **The Hornbooks of Rita K* (2001)
- **Too Bad: Sketches Toward a Self-Portrait* (2010)

Non-Fiction and Criticism

- **The Lovely Treachery of Words: Essays Selected and New* (1989)
- **A Likely Story: The Writing Life* (1995)

Assignments and Evaluation:

In-Class Presentation: 20%
This presentation must, coherently and eloquently, explicate a distinctive or characteristic linguistic, historical or regional aspect within one of Kroetsch's works. The student will then refine the presentation for written submission, one week after the in-class presentation.

Short Paper (1000 words) discussion paper: 20%
This short discussion paper must apprehend and discuss the deployment of place in any one of Kroetsch's works.

Long (4000 words) research paper: 40%
This research paper will examine in detail one of the threads traced throughout and within Kroetsch's oeuvre. The student will identify and limit her/his topic in consultation with Professor van Herk. Students may choose to undertake archival research in their long/research paper.

Class participation (discussion and preparedness): 10%

Class participation is measured on the basis of germane contribution to discussion of every work, and on each student's preparedness and engagement, as well as ability to speak eloquently. Attendance and discussion questions will frame how this part of the grade is calculated.

Weekly contributions to Critical Bibliography: 10%

Every week, each student is expected to post one bibliographical entry (with brief explication), which might be a useful paper on Kroetsch or other critical, historical, or theoretical references relevant to his writing.

There is no exam in this class. All assignments must be complete for students to pass this course.

Please make every effort to give assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

Grades are calculated according to the 4 point scale used in the Graduate Calendar:

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/grad/current/gs-g-1.html>

Grade	Grade Point Value	Graduate Description
A+	4.00	Outstanding
A	4.00	Excellent-superior performance showing comprehensive understanding of the subject matter
A-	3.70	Very good performance
B+	3.30	Good performance
B	3.00	Satisfactory performance
B-	2.70	Minimum pass for students in Faculty of Graduate Studies
C+	2.30	All grades below B- are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted towards Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements.
C	2.00
C-	1.70
D+	1.30
D	1.00
F	0.00

Please note: A B- is considered a minimum pass for students in the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the four-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

In the case of Instructors using numerical marks in the grading of term work, the departmental conversion chart applies.

90 + %	A+	4.0
85 – 89 %	A	4.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7
67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
64 – 66 %	C	2.0
60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
50 – 54 %	D	1.0
0 – 49 %	F	0

Academic conduct: Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offence and is considered plagiarism. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university.

FURTHER EXPECTATIONS:

1. Class attendance is required. You will have difficulty passing this course if you do not attend, and if you do not keep up with the reading. Organize your time to get the most out of this course.
2. Submit your essays in hard copy, double-spaced and in a clear font can be read easily. The pages MUST be numbered.
3. Class participation (discussion) is a requirement, part of the graded component of this course.
4. Work is to be discussed in class with intelligence, using literary terminology.
5. If you are having difficulties of any kind, or if you have questions, please feel free to meet with me. If you cannot make an appointment during my regular office hours, I am happy to arrange to meet at another time. Do not hesitate to inform me of potential difficulties because I may be able to help you solve them.
6. We will be in a wireless-access classroom. You may take notes and work on a laptop in class. If the context is relevant, we may use the Internet to research particular information together. You are to use your laptop or tablet as a tool to accompany the context of what we are reading and discussing relevant to the work of Robert Kroetsch. However, you are not to surf the net, text message your friends, or do assignments for a different class.

7. Cell phones are to be turned off in class. Portable media players, like iPods, are not to be used in class.
8. I check and answer e-mail regularly, but do not expect me to reply to a query within minutes. I usually answer e-mail messages within 48 hours.

Plagiarism:

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Please refer to the following information and make sure you are familiar with the statement below on plagiarism.

"At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses (www.ucalgary.ca/usri). Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys."

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>)

“The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, . . . , to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community”. The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a “positive and productive learning and working environment.”

This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that “seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff”. Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
