Course Description:
A foundational introduction to design thinking as applied to the built environment of buildings, cities, and landscapes. Students will complete a series of experiential learning exercises that emphasize three-dimensional thinking and problem-solving skills. The course is offered in a studio environment, which along with the course work, will provide valuable experience to develop a portfolio.

https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/architecture.html#47121

This studio course is intended for undergraduate students, from any discipline, interested in learning about architecture, design and the built environment. It is a foundational studio course, offering an introduction to design, design thinking, design process, and aspects of design theory, as they may be applied to the built environment, specifically buildings, cities, and landscapes. As a studio course, students will complete a series of experiential learning projects that address visual literacy, visual composition in two and three dimensions, and problem solving. This includes aspects of form, space, visual hierarchy, scale, proportion, and context. The exercises offer an introduction to basic 2D/3D representation (drawing and physical models) and visual/oral presentation skills. Students will be evaluated based on completed projects and a final portfolio of course projects.
Course Hours: 3 units; (0-3)

Course Learning Outcomes:
In this course, students will be able to:
• Develop design thinking skills and their application in design processes;
• Develop abstract visual literacy in spatial 2D and 3D composition including: shape/form, hierarchy, space, scale, etc.;
• Develop basic 2D and 3D design and visual representation and composition skills;
• Develop visualization and design model making skills;
• Enhance individual abilities to generate design responses;
• Develop design approaches, and the understanding of design theories and methods.
• Develop one’s ability to verbally present design work and discuss design ideas.

Learning Resources:
The following readings provide useful reference/learning resources and are available via the library online or via D2L:
(Ch. 1. Analysis, p 9-18; Ch. 2. Concept, p 19-26)
(Ch. 4. Program, p 37-48; Ch. 12. Scale, p 109-116)
Ching, F.D.K. Architecture: Form, Space, and Order. Hoboken, New Jersey: John Wiley & Sons, 2015. (available online at the U of C Library)

Technology requirements:
To successfully engage in their learning experiences at the University of Calgary, students taking online, remote and blended courses are required to have reliable access to the following technology:
• A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates
• A current and updated web browser
• Webcam (built-in or external)*
• Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone
• Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled
• Broadband internet connection
*Note that most current laptops will have a built-in webcam, speaker, and microphone.

Assessment Components:
The course is evaluated based on submitted project assignments and there are seven projects in total for the term:

Assessment and Evaluation Information

Attendance and Participation Expectations:
Given the studio format for the course, and the project-based course work, attendance for all classes is expected, with students preparing new work for each crit session noted. Please note that this attendance, and iterative work pattern, is crucial to effectively develop student design work for submission on project due dates.

Guidelines for Submitting Assignments:
All assignments will be due in class on the noted due date. Additionally, all assignments must be submitted digitally to the designated Dropbox on D2L on the prescribed due date, in PDF format, including images of design projects, PDF presentations and papers.

Final Examinations: There is no final examination for this course. Traditionally, for design studio courses, a final studio review is scheduled after the end of classes. For ARCH 406, there will be a final studio review on Thursday, December 7, from 1-4pm, in [ ].
Expectations for Writing (https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html):
Students are expected to write at a university level, demonstrating a proficient and professional use of English, proper citation methods, and compliance with academic regulations to negate instances of plagiarism and academic misconduct.

Late Assignments:
Late submission of project assignments will result in a half grade penalty, per day late. After 10 days late, the assignment will receive an ‘F’ grade. Note that in rare circumstances, students may seek an extension for a particular project. Students should advise their TAs as soon as the need is known, provide the reason for the extension, and most importantly, provide a plan as to when the project assignment will be submitted. Students must advise their TAs at least 48 hours in advance of a given due date to be eligible for an extension, otherwise the project assignment will be graded according to the late submission protocol noted above.

Criteria that must be met to pass: students must complete all assignments by the prescribed due dates to pass. Failure to submit ANY assignment will result in an automatic “F” grade for the course.

Grading Scale:
Final grades shall be reported as letter grades, correlating to the grade point value as per column 2 below. Final grades shall be calculated according to the 4-point range as noted in column 3. Assignments calculated by percentage grades will use the equivalent values shown in column 4.

• A roll of tracing paper is helpful for projects 6 & 7
• Drawing straight edges (drafting set squares a.k.a. triangles, plastic ruler, etc.)
• T-square is optional
• Circle and elliptical templates are useful, but optional and not required.
• A metric drafting scale is optional, a metric ruler is required
• Drafting masking tape
• Matt knife
• Cutting pad
• Hot melt glue gun
• 18” cork-backed steel ruler

Project Materials:
P1: White foam core, and 1 sheet Black artist paper (good for P1 and P2, recommended brand Fabriano Tiziano).
P2: P1 materials plus standard sugar cubes.
P3: Reworkable artist’s plasticine (one color only, recommended brand Van Aken Plastalina)
P4: Reworkable artist’s plasticine (one color only, recommended brand Van Aken Plastalina)
P5: No materials required.
