Official Course Description:

Soil: physical, chemical and biological properties, and the environmental and spatial relationships of vegetation patterns.

Prerequisite:

Geography 211 or consent of Geography department

Course Content:

We will introduce concepts of soil formation, general classification and controls on physical, chemical and biological properties. Global patterns of vegetation structure and productivity and their relationships with climate and soils will be investigated.

Labs support course material concisely with activities investigating fundamental soil physical properties, global patterns of soil water availability and vegetation productivity and interaction between soils and vegetation.

Required texts: none

Recommended texts:

1. Brady and Weil, The Nature and Properties of Soils, 14th Ed., 2007 (Note: this will be a required text for Geog 413)
2. Schultz, The Ecozones of the World, 2nd Ed., 2002

Supplementary reference material will be posted on D2L

Grading:

Tests (3 × 10%): 30% of course

Labs (5 × 7%): 35% of course

Final exam: 35% of course

The final examination will be scheduled by the Registrar's Office. It is not essential to pass all elements of the course to pass the course as a whole. Students must earn an overall 50% or higher to pass the course.

Late policy:

Lab assignments are required to be prepared individually. They are due at the beginning of the following scheduled lab session as posted on the Blackboard. Late submissions will cause penalty @ 10% marks per day. Medical reasons will require a note from physician.

Grading System:

USRI

At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses (www.ucalgary.ca/usri). Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys.

Writing across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Principles of Conduct

The University of Calgary Calendar includes a statement on the Principles of conduct expected of all members of the University community (including students, faculty, administrators, any category of staff, practicum supervisors and volunteers) whether on or off the University's property. This statement applies in all situations where the members of the University community are acting in their University capacities. All Members of the University Community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with this statement, which is available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j-2.html>

Plagiarism

Academic dishonesty is not an acceptable activity at the University of Calgary and students are strongly advised to read the Student Misconduct section in the University Calendar. Quite often, students are unaware of what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism. The most common are 1) presenting another student's work as your own; 2) presenting an author's work or ideas as your own without proper referencing; and 3) using work completed for another course. This activity will not be tolerated in this course and students conducting themselves in this manner will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the calendar.

Academic Accommodations:

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the university policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities. The procedure can be found at: www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities_0.pdf

Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, in writing, to the "(Instructor).

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy

FOIP: The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, e.g., outside instructor's office, the department office, etc. Term assignments will be returned to students individually, during class or during the instructor's office hours; if students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment

Posting of Grades and Pick up of Assignments

- Each assignment must be printed, stapled, and submitted at the start of class on its due date. Electronic copies of assignments will not be accepted.
- Final grades will be available to each student on D2L by password access. Grades will not be available at Geography's main office.
