Official Course Description:

The physical basis of water resource management. Elements of the hydrologic cycle: precipitation, ground water and stream flow. Introduction to the physical hydrology of different ecosystems and landscapes (e.g., peatlands, permafrost and mountain terrain) and to methods in ecosystems and catchment hydrology.

Course Content:

We will introduce concepts of water transport and storage throughout the hydrologic cycle, focusing on hydrological processes governing atmospheric waters, surface waters and groundwaters. Equations and approaches applied to estimate water balances for diverse geographic settings will be investigated.

Required Texts:

Hendriks, M. R. (2010): Introduction to Physical Hydrology, Oxford University Press

Prerequisites: Geography 305 or 307 and 339, or a course in statistics by consent of the Department.

Grading (Weighting):

There is a final examination, to be scheduled by the Registrar's Office. It is not essential to pass all elements/components to pass the course as a whole.

- Lab Assignments: 25%
- Tests and Projects: 40%
- Final Exam: 35% (Scheduled by registrar)

Grading System:

95-100	A+	75-79	B	59-61	C-
90-94	A	70-74	B-	55-58	D+
85-89	A-	65-69	C+	50-54	D
80-84	B+	62-64	C	0-49	F

In this course, most assignments will be assessed using a rubric. Rubrics communicate expectations for course work, and provide a framework for assessment. This approach applies to the course as a whole, and students can expect letter grades to reflect the following criteria of achievement:

For additional detailed course information posted by the Instructor Desire2Learn at <https://d2l.ucalgary.ca/d2l/home>

Grade	Criteria
F	Student cannot display a basic understanding of course materials
D	Student displays only a basic understanding of course materials
C	Student has a modest understanding of course materials, and can apply those understandings in basic problem solving.
B	Student has a good understanding of course materials, and can make connections between various course topics to solve interconnected problems.
A	Student has an excellent understanding of course material, and can solve problems not directly discussed in lectures/readings/assignments.

Digital Devices:

A policy on use of digital devices during lectures will be constructed in collaboration with the students in the first week of class.

USRI

At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses (www.ucalgary.ca/usri). Your responses make a difference - please participate in USRI Surveys.

Writing across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Principles of Conduct

The University of Calgary Calendar includes a statement on the Principles of conduct expected of all members of the University community (including students, faculty, administrators, any category of staff, practicum supervisors and volunteers) whether on or off the University's property. This statement applies in all situations where the members of the University community are acting in their University capacities. All Members of the University Community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with this statement which is available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j-2.html>

Plagiarism

Academic dishonesty is not an acceptable activity at the University of Calgary and students are strongly advised to read the Student Misconduct section in the University Calendar. Quite often, students are unaware of what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism. The most common are 1) presenting another student's work as your own 2) presenting an author's work or ideas as your own without proper referencing and 3) using work completed for another course. This activity will not be tolerated in this course and students conducting themselves in this manner will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the calendar. <http://www.ucalgary.ca/honesty/plagiarism>

Academic Accommodations:

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the university policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf

Students needing an accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities. The procedure can be found at: www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities_0.pdf

Students needing an accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, in writing, to the Instructor.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy

FOIP: The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, e.g., outside instructor's office, the department office, etc. Term assignments will be returned to students individually, during class or during the instructor's office hours; if students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.

Re: Posting of Grades and Picking-up of Assignments

- All assignments will be handled through D2L or personally.
- Their own grades will be available to each student on D2L by password access. Grades will not be available at Geography's main office.
