Early Medieval Europe

Lesley Morden

T/R 1230-1345, ENE 241

This course is designed to cover the period ranging from the fall of Rome to the Investiture Controversy. The economic, social and institutional features of Western Europe, including the origins and rise of the Church, monasticism, barbarian kingdoms, feudalism and the agrarian economy will be examined. The impact of neighboring civilizations such as Byzantium and Islam on the development of Western Europe will also be analyzed.
