Course Description:	Students attend, discuss, and critique a series of research seminars in the Human Performance Laboratory.
Course Objectives:	To expose students to different biomechanics topics studied at the University of Calgary as well as around the world. To allow students an opportunity to discuss strengths and weaknesses of a research project. To allow students an opportunity to discuss strengths and weaknesses of oral presentations.
Required Reading Materials:	N/A
Contacting the Instructor:	Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak with their instructor during class or office hours. Should you wish to meet with the instructor outside of office hours, please phone or email the instructor to make an appointment. Email, while commonly used, does limit the effectiveness of communications and may not be the best way for instructors to answer student questions. Therefore, the instructor may request a telephone call or personal meeting. Your instructor will inform you as to his/her expectations about emails.
Grading Scale:	This class will be assessed as a credit-fail. All of the requirements must be met for credit. If any of the requirements (attendance, submission of written assignments) are not met, the student will be assessed a fail. Credit/fail grade will be based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance at weekly seminars. Students are allowed to miss a maximum of two seminars • Attendance at weekly tutorials following the seminar where a Biomechanics faculty member critiques and discusses the seminar presentation. • Submission of a one page (350 words or less) initial response to selected seminars. • Submission of short papers following discussions of specific topics.

Academic
Accommodation
Awareness Information:

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodation. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 220-8237. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the commencement of this course. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation.

Plagiarism/Cheating/Other Academic Misconduct:
(see Calendar)

A single offence of cheating, plagiarism, or other academic misconduct is a serious act that will not be tolerated in the Faculty of Kinesiology. Penalties for such acts will be determined by the Dean and may result in a failing grade, probation, suspension, or expulsion. Any student who is uncertain if an action falls into this category should consult the instructor and/or the Calendar.

Midterm Exam Policy:

The Faculty of Kinesiology policy is that all students are expected to write midterm exams on the dates listed on the course outline. Special accommodation may be granted by the instructor in exceptional circumstances only which include illness, participation in athletic events (varsity, national or international), domestic affliction, and religious conviction. It is the student's responsibility to supply proper documentation and/or notification prior to the originally scheduled midterm to support their circumstance. Personal travel plans and arrangements are not valid reasons for requesting a special accommodation for a midterm exam. Failure to comply with this policy will result in a grade of zero for the midterm and possible failure in the course.

FOIP Policy:

Please note that the University is under the jurisdiction of the provincial Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act. Please refer to the website for details:
<http://www.ucalgary.ca/secretariat/privacy>
